Pejovich, 2012-12-06 It was Lenin's genius to recognize the importance of socialist system with all the trappings of embellishing the democracy If the people want a constitution give them one and even include the bill of rights If they want a parliament give them that too And a system of courts If they want a federal system create that myth as well Above all let them have elections for the act of voting is what the common man most clearly associates with democracy Give them all these but make sure that they have no effect on how things are run G. Warren Nutter Most research by Western scholars has emphasized macroeconomics and to a considerable extent still does as the method of analysis and growth rates as a standard for evaluating the performance of different economies In the early 1960s Nutter raised questions about the reported growth rates in socialist states the importance of growth policies for human welfare and the ability of macroeconomics to enhance our understanding of social and economic processes In his work Nutter used the standard price theory adjusted to incorporate the incentive effects of property rights in resources He was castigated for defying the traditional wisdom Not surprisingly history has validated Nutter's theoretical framework and his conclusions
