Consuming Knowledge: Studying Knowledge Use in Leisure and Work Activities Steven D. Silver, 2012-12-06 It is difficult to overstate the importance of personal consumption both to individual consumers and to the economy While consumer are recognized as valuing market goods and services for the activities they can construct from them in the frameworks of several disciplines consequences of the characteristics of goods and services they use in these activities have not been well studied In the discourse to follow I will contrast knowledge yielding and conventional goods and services as factors in the construction of activities that consumers engage in when they are not in the workplace Consumers will be seen as deciding on non work activities and the inputs to these activities according to their objectives and the values and cumulated skills they hold I will suggest that knowledge content in these activities can be efficient for consumer objectives and also have important externalities through its effect on productivity at work and economic growth The exposition will seek to elaborate these points and contribute to multi disciplinal dialogue on consumption It takes as its starting point the contention that consumption is simultaneously an economic and social psychological process and that integration of content can contribute to explanation Spotlight on Literature/Collection 7 Burton Goodman, 1987-06-01 Reading level M purple traveling the world for their fashion TV show but their very different personalities often make each episode an adventure in itself. Contains Premiere Paige has always been outgoing and fashion obsessed while her sister Erin would rather stay behind a camera in comfy jeans and a tee. But after Paige's fashion helps find their way onto the local news, the sisters' passions collide when they are offered their own fashion TV show. It soon becomes clear this unlikely partnership has plenty of room for success and even more for failure. Catwalk: The high ratings of the sisters' On the Runway show lands them a ticket to New York Fashion Week. Paige is determined to get the attention of top designers but her newfound fame threatens to go to her head. Meanwhile, Erin wants to help promote the work of eco designers but struggles to be taken seriously. Rendezvous: Paige and Erin are ready to take their show on location to Paris. Unfortunately, it doesn't take long for their intentions to get lost in translation. An unplanned week of filming at a model's family estate leads to romance, jealousy, and surprises. Spotlight: When Paige and Erin head to London, both get a reception to remember. Bombarded by crazed fans and the interrogations of the infamous British paparazzi, the sisters know that their lives have changed big time. Star treatment has its perks, but before long, both girls are stretched to a breaking point. Glamour: Paige's engagement to designer Dylan Marceau shocks the fashion world. Although Paige appears to be happy, Erin wonders if it's really just a desire for attention and publicity. At the same time, Erin is feeling pressure from her ex Blake to take their friendship to a romantic level. As the sisters prepare to film in the Bahamas, they also must deal with growing turmoil on set. Ciao: A trip to Milan might be the break both Paige and Erin need, but things only seem to get more complicated once they land in Italy. Paige's on-again-off-again romance with Dylan combined with a new director for On the Runway leaves Erin with more work on the show. Just when Erin can't take any more, she discovers a secret that could crush Paige. And doing the right thing could not only hurt her sister, it might end their show for good.
