Steampunk popularity and the theory that he may be an alien from a high gravity planet Spring Heeled Jack a tall thin bounding figure with bat like wings clawed hands wheels of fire for eyes and breath of blue flames first leapt to public attention in Victorian London in 1838 springing over hedges and walls from dark lanes and dank graveyards to frighten and sometimes physically attack women News of this strange and terrifying character quickly spread but despite numerous sightings through 1904 he was never captured or identified Exploring the vast urban legend surrounding this enigmatic figure John Matthews explains how the Victorian fascination with strange phenomena and sinister figures paired with hysterical reports enabled Spring Heeled Jack to be conjured into existence Sharing original 19th century newspaper accounts of Spring Heeled Jack sightings and encounters he also examines recent 20th and 21st century reports including a 1953 UFO related sighting from Houston Texas and disturbing accounts of the Slender Man who displays notable similarities with Jack He traces Spring Heeled Jack's origins to earlier mythical beings from folklore such as fairy creatures and land spirits and explores the theory that Jack is an alien marooned on Earth whose leaping prowess is attributed to his home planet having far stronger gravity than ours The author reveals how Jack the Ripper although a different and much more violent character chose to identify himself with the old well established figure of Spring Heeled Jack Providing an extensive look at Spring Heeled Jack from his beginnings to the present Matthews illustrates why the worldwide Steampunk
