The Squatters' Rights of Favelados Stephen Conn, 1969 Squatting and the State Lorna Fox O'Mahony, Marc L. Roark, 2022-08-25 Squatting and the State offers a new theoretical and methodological approach for analyzing state response to squatting homelessness empty land and housing Embedded in local national and transnational contexts and reaching beyond conventional property theories this important work sets out a fresh analytical paradigm for understanding the deep interlocking problems facing not just the traditional victims of narratives about homelessness and squatting but also a variety of other participants in these conflicts Against the backdrop of economic social and political crises Squatting and the State offers readers important insights about the changing natures of property investment housing communities and the multi level state and describes the implications of these changes for how we think and talk about property in law Securitization of Property Squatting in Europe Mary Manjikian, 2013-05-29 Housing is no longer about having a place to live but about state pressures to conform norms and policies regarding citizenship and practices of surveillance and security Breaking new ground in the field of urban politics and international relations Securitization of Property Squatting in Europe examines and critiques legislative initiatives and examines governmental attempts to reframe urban property squatting as a crime and a threat to domestic security Using examples from France Netherlands Denmark and Great Britain Mary Manjikian argues that developments within the European Union including terrorist attacks in London and Madrid the rise of right wing extremist parties and the lifting of barriers to immigration and travel within the EU have had effects on housing policy which has become the subject of state security policy in Europe s urban areas In Denmark squatting has often had an ideological anti state character In Paris housing policy can be viewed as a type of identity politics with squatters as transnational actors who pose a transnational security threat In Great Britain the role of the press has created a drive to criminalize squatting Events in the Netherlands present two competing notions of what housing is a human right or an economic good produced by the free market Squatter's Republic Tamara Venit Shelton, 2013-11-22 Who should have the right to own land and how much of it A Squatter s Republic follows the rise and fall of the land question in the Gilded Age and the rise and fall of a particularly nineteenth century vision of landed independence More specifically the author considers the land question through the anti monopolist reform movements it inspired in late nineteenth century California The Golden State was a squatter s republic a society of white men who claimed no more land than they could use and who promised to uphold agrarian republican ideals and resist monopoly the nemesis of democracy Their opposition to land monopoly became entwined with public discourse on Mexican land rights industrial labor relations immigration from China and the rise of railroad and other corporate monopolies Baba Batra Jacob Neusner, 1984 Edited by the acclaimed scholar Jacob Neusner this thirty five volume English translation of the Talmud Yerushalmi has been hailed by the Jewish Spectator as a project of immense benefit to students of rabbinic Judaism Protest, Property and the Commons Lucy Finchett-Maddock, 2016-03-17 Protest Property and the Commons focuses on the alternative property narratives of social centres or political squats and how the spaces and their communities create their own resistant form of law Drawing on critical legal theory legal pluralism legal geography poststructuralism and new materialism the book considers how protest movements both use state law and create new more informal legalities in order to forge a practice of resistance Invaluable for anyone working within the area of informal property in land commons protest and adverse possession this book offers a ground breaking account of the integral role of time space and performance in the instituting processes of law and resistance
