How, 2016-06-30 This book demonstrates that classical sociology is essential to cutting edge debates in the contemporary social sciences It has become fashionable to play down the importance of the classic text in sociology and critique the ideas of Weber Marx and Durkheim as ideologically outdated The author mounts a strong challenge to this view criticising such notions as de traditionalization structuration and postmodernism emphasizing instead the relevance of habit re traditionalization and social integration across time Arguing that sociology has eliminated the importance of the past history and tradition in favour of the transience of the present he revisits the Habermas Gadamer debate to argue that tradition is the ground of the classic and the classic something that must prove itself anew in subsequent situations He uses the work of Durkheim Simmel and Weber to illustrate this process Making a distinction between classic and canon which parallels that between agency and structure he allows the reader to appreciate the separate value of both This major contribution to the field is essential reading for scholars and students of sociology and social theory Classical and Contemporary Sociological Theory Scott Appelrouth, Laura Desfor Edles, 2008 A unique hybrid of text and readings this book combines the major writings of sociology s core classical and contemporary theorists with an historical as well as theoretical framework for understanding them Laura Desfor Edles and Scott A Appelrouth provide not just a biographical and theoretical summary of each theorist reading but an overarching scaffolding which students can use to examine compare and contrast each theorists major themes and concepts No other theory text combines such student friendly explanation and analysis with original theoretical works Key features include Pedagogical devices and visual aids charts figures and photographs to help summarize key concepts illuminate complex ideas and provoke student interest Chapters on well known figures such as Marx Weber Durkheim Parsons and Foucault as well as an in depth discussion of lesser known voices such as Charlotte Perkins Gilman WEB Du Bois and Leslie Sklair Photos of not

Kimmel, Matthew Mahler, 2007 In an accessible and thoughtful manner this anthology an update of Social and Political Theory Classical Readings 1998 introduces students to the key classic texts in social thought In the second edition Michael Kimmel focuses more specifically on the discipline of sociology rather than melding classical sociological and political theories in one volume Taking a serious look at the canonical texts he presents a diverse range of thinkers who were critical to the development of sociological theory and offers a more inclusive classical canon that is informed by both the historical record and the needs of contemporary students Many of the classical theorists whose works are included here were much more influential than the canon suggested For example the writings of Mary Wollstonecraft Frederick Douglass Margaret Fuller and W E B Du Bois were widely disseminated and discussed in their time yet they were pushed to the margins of the canon declared to be derivative or second rate In attempting to set the record a bit straighter Kimmel restores these and other forgotten thinkers to the positions they once held The questions they posed are among the most vital theoretical and political questions of our era evidence that classical social and political theory continues to speak to new generations of students about the issues that most affect their lives Features new to the second edition Selections of key texts by Auguste Comte Positive Philosophy of Auguste Comte Edmund Burke Reflections on the Revolution in France John Dewey Democracy and Education and Elsie Clews Parsons Women in Public Life Stronger disciplinary focus within sociology Classical Social Theory Second Edition is an ideal text for courses in the theory of sociology the history of social theory the history of political thought and western philosophy Dyskurs ,2006
