Rachel Dixon,2018-03-01 Australia s mountains are not high by world standards but they have influenced the spread of human settlement and they affect the weather and the presence of water in the environment From the ancient weathered ranges in the deserts to the Great Dividing Range and the extinct volcanoes Australia s mountain landscapes are varied and beautiful Many of the plants and animals are unique such as the hibernating Mountain Pygmy Possum whose habitat is under constant threat Mountains are special places for the Australian Aboriginal people Created by their ancestor and creation spirits mountains have important connections with the Dreamtime stories that stretch back to the beginning of human civilisation in Australia      Australian Mammal Society ,1994-06      BUG Australia 2005 Tim Uden,2005 Budget travel is what BUG guides are all about no flash hotels and fancy banquets just the most comprehensive information on backpackers hostels and living it up without blowing the budget      The Pre-historic Arts of the Aborigines of Australia Thomas Worsnop,1887      Journal of the Horn Scientific Exploring Expedition, 1894 Charles Winnecke,Ralph Tate,John Alexander Watt,1897      Carl Strehlow's 1909 Comparative Heritage Dictionary Anna Kenny,2018-08-10 Carl Strehlow s comparative dictionary manuscript is a unique item of Australian cultural heritage it is a large collection of circa 7 600 Aranda 6 800 Luritja and 1 200 Dieri to German entries compiled at the beginning of the twentieth century at the Hermannsburg Mission in central Australia It is an integral part of Strehlow s ethnographic work on Aboriginal cultures that his German editor Baron Moritz von Leonhardi published as Die Aranda und Luritja St mme in Zentral Australien Strehlow 1907 1920 in Frankfurt Strehlow and his editor had planned to publish a language study that included this comparative dictionary but it remained unpublished until now due to a number of complicated historical and personal circumstances of the main characters involved with the dictionary Strehlow s linguistic work is historically and anthropologically significant because it probably represents the largest and most comprehensive wordlist of Indigenous languages compiled in Australia during the early stages of contact It is an important primary source for Luritja and Aranda speakers Both languages are spoken in homes and taught in schools in central Australia The reasons for presenting this work as a heritage dictionary that is as an exact transcription of the original form of the handwritten manuscript are to follow the Western Aranda people s wishes and to maintain its historical authenticity which will prove to be of great use to both Indigenous people and scholars interested in language      Australian Mammal Society ,1992-06      Pamphlets on the Lumber Industry ,1897
