strange habit of constantly changing their shapes. They shifted restlessly from one form to another. Since they were creatures of evil the shapes they assumed were all forms of the blackest evil and dread. Even as Queen Lurline watched fascinated by the strange spectacle the Mimics shifted and changed and flitted from one loathsome shape to another. A monster bird with leathery wings and a horned head dropped to the ground and in another second assumed the squat body of a huge toad with the head of a hyena snarling with laughter. A crawling red lizard all of ten feet in length turned into a giant butterfly with black wings and the body of a serpent. A great green bat with wicked talons alighted on a ledge not far from Queen Lurline and in an instant changed to a mammoth hairy creature with the body of a huge ape and the head of an alligator.
