The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2008-11-28 A Who's Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms

The Making of Modern English Society from 1850 Janet Roebuck, 1982 In the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century a variety of forces emerged which changed society in many profound and subtle ways The Making of Modern English Society from 1850 uses the findings of recent historical and sociological research contemporary literature and a wide range of historical sources to form a clear picture of the main patterns of the social changes which took place in this turbulent period Jane Roebuck shows how in these hundred years the whole fabric of society altered more rapidly and radically than in any preceding century. She gives an account of the dramatic change which occurred in all spheres of national life. She demonstrates how the drift towards socialism which began in the nineteenth century gathered momentum in the twentieth and how massive social change was produced by the two world wars. In the field of economics the author considers the development of the maturing but still primitive industrial economy of the mid nineteenth century into a modern economy based on mass production and mass consumption. She also describes the change in emphasis from desire for world power to concern for domestic prosperity and welfare services.

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s. The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing, the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included. New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred: the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union, the rise and fall of postmodernism, the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism, the triumph of the Internet. Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present, New Makers includes artists, writers, dramatists, architects, philosophers, anthropologists, scientists, sociologists, major political figures, composers, film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview. Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley, next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie, alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola, Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida, Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin. Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer, Bernard Crick, Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston. In a few cases, for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin, contributors are themselves the subject of entries. With its global reach, New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world. The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing. There is an index of names and key terms.
