

“Mother”

Your love was like moonlight turning harsh things to beauty, so that little wry souls reflecting each other obliquely as in cracked mirrors... beheld in your luminous spirit
their own reflection, transfigured as in a shining stream, and loved you for what they are not.
You are less an image in my mind than a luster
I see you in gleams
pale as star-light on a gray wall... evanescent as the reflection of a white swan
shimmering in broken water.

The Mama Poems:

The Mama Poems Maurice Kenny, 1984 The Mama Poems Maurice Kenny, 1984 A cycle of poems centered on the author's late mother Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh, 2019-04-23 A thoughtful exploration of male poets' contributions to the literature of motherhood In the late 1950s the notion of a mother poem emerged during a confessional literary movement that freed poets to use personal psychosexual material about intimate topics such as parents' childhood, failed marriages, children's infidelity and mental illness In Male Poets and the Agon of the Mother Hannah Baker Saltmarsh argues that male poets have contributed to what we think of as the literature of motherhood that confessional and postconfessional modes have been formative in the way male poets have grappled with the stories of their mothers and how those stories reflect on the writers and their artistic identities Through careful readings of formative elegies and homages written by male poets of this time Saltmarsh explores how they engaged with femininity and feminine voices in the 1950s and 60s and sheds light on the inheritance of confessional motifs of gender and language as demonstrated by postconfessional writers responding to the rich subject matter of motherhood within the contexts of history, myth and literature A foreword is provided by Jo Gill, professor of twentieth century and American literature in the Department of English and associate dean for education at the University of Exeter *The mother's book of poetry, selected by Mrs. A.
