Sullivan's professional and personal behavior. After Davy wins one of the cases he was not expected to win, Sullivan designates Davy to lead the firm's efforts in representing a group of landowners in eastern Kentucky whose properties have been contaminated by oil field production. Beth Sheehan, a contract lawyer hired by the firm to help with discovery on the case, travels to Kentucky with Davy where they have a brief affair. Davy returns to find that his wife, Michelle, is pregnant. The fallout from the affair and the stress of preparing the case send Davy spiraling into depression and emotional paralysis. Along the way down to his moral crisis, Davy contemplates existential questions about the nature of law, the importance of literature, the existence of God, and what if anything other than single malt Scotch or cold chardonnay gives meaning to life as he considers losing his wife, leaving the law firm, and abandoning the practice of law. Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1976. The Management of Construction.
