The Hite Report On Love Passion And Emotional Violence:

The Hite Report on Love, Passion and Emotional Violence Shere Hite, 1991 A reproduction of the classic text unavailable now for more than a decade with a new introduction by the author The Hite Report first published in 1976 was a sexual revolution in six hundred pages To answer sensitive questions dealing with the most intimate details of women s sexuality Hite s innovation was simple she asked women a lot of them everything and published the results One hundred thousand women ages fourteen to seventy eight were asked what they do and don t like about sex how orgasm really feels with and without intercourse how it feels not to have an orgasm during sex the importance of clitoral stimulation and masturbation and to name the greatest pleasures and frustrations of their sexual lives among many other questions The Hite Report declares that orgasm is easy and strong for women given the right stimulation that most women have orgasm most easily during masturbation or clitoral stimulation by hand that sex as we define it is a cultural institution not a biological one and that attitudes must change to include the stimulation women desire

Sexual Life in Sweden Hans Zetterberg, 2021-10-14 Now available in English Sexual Life in Sweden is a classic piece of sex research by one of Sweden s most distinguished social scientists Sponsored by the Royal Commission on Sex Education more than thirty years ago it remains the only study of sexual behavior in a randomly selected adult population sample ever funded by a government Because an astonishing response rate was achieved 91 percent during the course of Zetterberg s research the claim that Sweden is one of the few countries where generalizations about national sexual behavior can be made may be stated with confidence Zetterberg s study matches the gender of interviewers to that of subjects From a theoretical perspective Zetterberg analyzes the change in Sweden from a restrictive to a contraceptive society The study makes it clear that with over 1 000 acts of intercourse for every live birth 90 percent of sexual activity between consenting adults in modern Sweden does not result simply for procreation Nevertheless the research yields a picture of a highly responsible society Zetterberg explores the emergence of two powerful new norms when having sex you must use contraception and when in an existing sexual relationship you must not start another one He also examines the issue of abortion as part of a concept of social justice The author compares the behavior of those who experience an unwanted pregnancy with those who do not and explains that abortion is seen by Swedes as part of the provision of the welfare and social justice system Included is an examination of the sexual behavior of young people the age of their first sexual experience the circumstances surrounding it whether positive parental involvement in their children s lives has any influence on their sexual conduct and sex education programs in the schools This translation of Zetterberg s study has been prepared by British sociologist Graham Fennell who also authored a new introduction positioning Zetterberg s work in the history of sex research and comparing its findings with contemporary studies in Scandinavia Western Europe and North America In light of the ongoing controversies about sex education its conclusions remain relevant to policy discussions today

Interpreting the Political Terrell Carver, Matti

Hyvarinen,2013-02-01 Uses linguistic and semiotic analytical techniques to interrogate the use of language in the construction of political discourses An impressively broad range of methodologies is used each to explore a substantive political issue

In the Name of Love Heather Fraser,2008-10-07 Although love is the hallmark of humanity it is not widely discussed in social work and other related professions with respect to its potential connection to abuse In this groundbreaking book the author argues that while love and abuse should not co exist they often do Using a feminist narrative approach stories about love abuse and social work are told with the purpose of understanding domestic violence and other forms of abuse Based on interviews with 84 women of varying ages in Canada and Australia the author shows how the pain and shame of intimate abuse can leave its mark on the bodies minds and souls of victims survivors long after abusive episodes have ended Additionally Fraser also discusses the importance of hope enlightened witnesses income support and educational opportunities for women who refuse to renounce love relationships altogether but are instead trying to foster relationships that are respectful as well as erotic

Women as Revolutionary Agents of Change Shere Hite,1994 Recently published to much acclaim in England these reflective essays by Shere Hite reveal and explore the methodological and philosophical import of the famous Hite Reports on male and female sexuality and love and include extensive excerpts from the reports themselves To read this outstanding distillation of Hite s writings is to see the continuing impact of her prodigious work over two decades to hear her views on the issues facing women as agents of social change and to be taken to the cutting edge of current debates on sexual politics
