Music is of paramount importance in Judaism On the verse Hearken unto the song and the prayer which Your servant prays before You this day I Kings 8 28 the Gemarra states that wherever there is song there shall be prayer and indeed in the Temple song was an inseparable element of the sacrificial services thereafter finding its position in the prayers and the Torah reading with its special melody in the synagogue Chassidism employed music as one of its main avenues for serving G d Music served to bring the individual to a state of awakening and joy nullifying sadness which was seen as an element that could only lead to negativity Joy allowed one to reach ever higher levels in the service of G d leaving one s sorrows behind as explained by the founder of the Modzits Chassidic court Rabbi Yehezkel of Kozmir when interpreting the verse with joy you shall go forth Isaiah 55 to mean that through joy we shall go forth from all our difficulties In this book Shmuel Barzilai takes the reader on a brief and concise tour of the Chassidic courts and their world of music It explains the wordless melody Niggun which is perhaps even more important than songs having words the importance of dance the place of honor given to Shabbat songs and the role of music in Kabbalah The book provides an overview of the activities of Rabbis who composed and sang at every opportunity whether in the synagogue or while conducting the traditional Tisch where Chassidic adherents gathered each Shabbat and Festival to hear their Rebbe explain sections of Torah sing and interpret sayings on music Barzilai also discusses melodies niggunim that became particularly famous or derived from non Jewish sources but underwent a process that allowed them to be adopted by the Admoric leaders and integrated into the Chassidic court s repertoire
