Herskovits, 2013-11-05 Focussing on the problems of change and resistance to change that mark the African sub-continent, this book examines Africa's place in the world from earliest times. It considers the nature of its peoples in their prehistoric development, the ways in which their cultures were oriented and the ways in which these cultures guided their reactions to European ideas. It also assesses the human responses to industrial, technological and economic changes and the re-discovery by the Africans of African culture. Originally published in 1962. The Human Factor in Changing Africa Melville Jean Herskovits, 1983-02-01 Unpublished Research on Africa, Completed and in Progress United States Department of State, External Research Division, 1960 Beginning in 1954 April issue lists studies in progress, October issue completed studies. The Crisis, 1963-03 The Crisis, founded by W. E. B. Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP, is a journal of civil rights, history, politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color. For nearly 100 years, The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders, decision makers, peacemakers and justice seekers. It has chronicled informed, educated, entertained and in many instances set the economic, political and social agenda for our nation and its multi-ethnic citizens. External Research United States Department of State, External Research Division, 1961-04 External Research. ER List United States Department of State, External Research Division, 1958 External Research List, 1960 Edhina Ekogidho - Names as Links Minna Saarelma-Maunumaa, 2003-10-17 What are the most popular names of the Ambo people in Namibia? Why do so many Ambos have Finnish first names? What do the African names of these people mean? Why is the namesake so important in Ambo culture? How did the long independence struggle affect personal naming and what are the latest name-giving trends in Namibia? This study analyses the changes in the personal naming system of the Ambo people in Namibia over the last 120 years, starting from the year 1883 when the first Ambos received biblical and European names at baptism. The central factors in this process were the German and South African colonisation and European missionary work on the one hand and the rise of African nationalism on the other hand Eventually this clash between African and European naming practices led to a new and dynamic naming system which includes elements of both African and European origin Time & Tide Helen A.
