Islam for Our Time

John Herlihy, 2012-09 Written by an American Muslim convert who has lived nearly 40 years among the Muslims the author presents an insider's account of Islam's true place within the family of religions what it means to be a Muslim living in the shadow of the modern world and how to cultivate a life of spirituality through the way of Islam in today's anti-spiritual environment Within its pages history unfolds mysteries are unveiled and secrets are revealed that shed light on the great human story of spiritual awakening and fulfillment This rigorous and highly readable introduction to Islam goes a long way to remedy the lack of historical perspective and the narrowing of intellectual and spiritual scope contributing to the outer and inner crisis of the Muslim world as well as the poor understanding of this religion in the West Another significant merit of Herlihy's book is the way it sets out the universal principles of Islam shared with other traditional faiths and its emphasis on the moral and spiritual fruits of the religion This work is an invaluable resource for Muslims and non-Muslims alike providing as it does a solid grounding in the traditional spirit of Islam Patrick Laude professor at Georgetown University Edmund A Walsh School of Foreign Service Qatar Readers will find that this timely work by John Herlihy offers a sublime contribution to the field of Islamic Studies Relevant for Muslims and non-Muslims alike one of the book's major themes is that the Islamic tradition converges with the unanimous tradition residing at the heart of each of the world's religions The book reminds us that the foundations of the modern and postmodern world were formulated in revolt from the sacred which is an essential point to be recognized by anyone seeking to understand the crisis that consumes the contemporary epoch This work provides ultimate answers to ultimate questions Samuel Bendeck Sotillos editor of Psychology and the Perennial Philosophy Studies in Comparative Religion Amidst widespread misconceptions of Islam generated by Western media readers who wish to understand the true nature of this noble tradition and its related spirituality will find this volume a trustworthy and illuminating guide As a Western convert philosopher and above all practitioner John Herlihy is well placed to dispel the fog of misunderstanding which often surrounds the subject of Islam This book will be warmly welcomed by all those wishing to understand the timeless message of Islam by seekers looking for practical guidance and by those concerned with fostering a more harmonious global community of religions Harry Oldmeadow author of Frithjof Schuon and the Perennial Philosophy

All the Year Round ,1894 D.H.Lawrence's Philosophy of Nature Dr. Tianying Zang,2011-12-16 This book is a study of D H Lawrences view of nature his ecological consciousness contributes to his unique place within modern aesthetics An affinity has been examined between Lawrences ideology of man nature relationship and the classic oriental philosophies concerning nature particularly the ancient Taoism In Lawrences novels and essays one finds that virtually all aspects of his religious vision are anticipated in Eastern literature His almighty Holy Ghost for example who is responsible for the sacred underlying unity is named Brahman by Hindus Dharmakaya by Buddhists and Tao by Taoists His duality with its stress on the dynamic balance between complementary life principles is fully worked out in the Yin Yang philosophy of Taoism The

People's Bible: John Joseph Parker,1893 The Credibility of Mysteries; a Lecture, Etc Daniel MOORE (Vicar of Trinity Church, Paddington.),1873 'Being Towards Death' Sylvie Avakian,2021-04-19 This book draws the philosophical contribution of Martin Heidegger together with theological spiritual insights from the East especially that of Nikolai Berdyaev Thus it brings into dialogue the West with the East and philosophy with theology By doing so it offers Christian theology an existential spiritual language that is relevant and meaningful for the contemporary reader In particular the work explores Heidegger s being towards death Sein zum Tode as the basis for theological philosophical thinking Only the one who embraces being towards death has the courage to think and poetize This thinking in turn makes being towards death possible and in this circular movement of thinking and being the mystery of being reveals itself and yet remains hidden Since the work aims at demonstrating being towards death through language it transitions away from the common formulations and traditionally accepted ways of writing dogmatic theology towards an original philosophical reflection on faith and spirituality At different points however the work also retrieves the profound thoughts and theologies of the past the insightful creativity of which cannot be denied Homiletic David G. Buttrick,1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics Sublime Community

fundamental sense of community is the first requirement of any effective ecological commitment and communion But it is precisely on this level of community that increasing alienation has been most obvious The distancing and disaffection of the human from nature along with the violence and antagonism of human beings among themselves has long been the cause of alarm Alliances have been formed along political economic racial sexual cultural and religious lines Political economic and social superstructures have evolved to serve an alienating situation the common good is at best understood as a compromise amongst competing groups of self interest and greed In such a context ecology can easily restrict its aims to environmentalism and merely landscaping areas of poisoned earth How might the Eucharist shape an ecological vision It brings nature and culture together in a unique way bringing together what is too often kept apart in referring to say nature and culture person and community creation and the Creator The Eucharist as holy communion also brings together many gifts and many forms of giving From nature s giving we have the grain and the grapes From the giving expressed in human work and skill we have the gifts of bread and wine From the generous giving of family and friends flow the gifts of good meals and festive celebrations From Jesus self giving at the Last Supper the disciples were given his body and blood the food and drink to nourish life in him After his resurrection his giving continues as he breathes into his disciples his Holy Spirit And working in and through all these gifts and kinds of giving there is the gift of the Father who so loved the world
