of the music which is at bottom the story of the desire for freedom in all its unruly and liberating glory Slipping the constraints of chronology Marcus braids together past and present holding up to the light the ways that these striking songs fall through time and circumstance gaining momentum and meaning astonishing us by upending our presumptions and prejudices This book by a founder of contemporary rock criticism and its most gifted and incisive practitioner is destined to become an enduring classic One of the epic figures in rock writing The New York Times Book Review Marcus is our greatest cultural critic not only because of what he says but also as with rock and roll itself how he says it The Washington Post Winner of the Deems Taylor Virgil Thomson Award in Music Criticism given by the American Society of Composers Authors Publishers
