

The background of the cover is a painting of a landscape. In the background, there is a large, multi-story stone building with a prominent tower or spire, possibly a castle or a large manor. The building is set on a hill. In the foreground, there is a body of water, likely a lake or a wide river, which reflects the sky and the building. The water is surrounded by trees and foliage, some of which are in shades of autumn. The overall style of the painting is impressionistic, with soft colors and visible brushstrokes.
