the afternoon we went to the Salvation Army warehouse to help wrap gifts for children in need Mom and I enjoyed our afternoon I put Moms hand in place to hold the paper and I would hurry to get the tape on before she lost grip Mom repeatedly asked Who are the presents for I repeatedly said They are for children and families in need Mom was happy all over again On the way home I decided to stop at the health food store I only needed a couple of items and there was a parking space close to the store Mom said she was too tired to go in and wanted to wait in the car I agreed and it would be quicker for me to go in alone She was buckled in her seatbelt and hadnt yet remembered how to unbuckle it I was confident Mom would be fine I locked her in the car and told her I would be back in five minutes I grabbed the items I needed peeked out the window saw Mom in the car and proceeded to the checkout There was one customer ahead of me Checkout went fast and I rushed out to the car Mom was gone I panicked like never before I wanted to scream My mind raced What should I do Should I call the police I cried Where did Mom go      The Executioner and Her Way of Life, Vol. 9 Mato Sato,2025-08-12

Polyakov,2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem Memory Spaces Victoria
