The Hospice Alternative Living With Dying:

The Hospice Alternative Margaret Manning,1984     Religious Understandings of a Good Death in Hospice Palliative Care Harold Coward,Kelli I. Stajduhar,2012-06-13 Winner of the 2012 AJN American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award in the Hospice and Palliative Care category In the 1960s English physician and committed Christian Cicely Saunders introduced a new way of treating the terminally ill that she called hospice care Emphasizing a holistic and compassionate approach her model led to the rapid growth of a worldwide hospice movement Aspects of the early hospice model that stressed attention to the religious dimensions of death and dying while still recognized and practiced have developed outside the purview of academic inquiry and consideration Meanwhile global migration and multicultural diversification in the West have dramatically altered the profile of contemporary hospice care In response to these developments this volume is the first to critically explore how religious understandings of death are manifested and experienced in palliative care settings Contributors discuss how a good death is conceived within the major religious traditions of Christianity Islam Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Chinese religion and Aboriginal spirituality A variety of real world examples are presented in case studies of a Buddhist hospice center in Thailand Ugandan approaches to dying with HIV AIDS Punjabi extended family hospice care and pediatric palliative care The work sheds new light on the significance of religious belief and practice at the end of life at the many forms religious understanding can take and at the spiritual pain that so often accompanies the physical pain of the dying person

Hospitality as Holiness Luke Bretherton,2010-01-01 Hospitality as Holiness will appeal to those interested in the broad question of the relationship between reason tradition natural law and revelation in theology and more specifically to those engaged with questions about plurality tolerance and ethical conflict in Christian ethics and medical ethics

A Question of Choice Pamela McGrath,2018-10-26 First published in 1997 this book contributes to our understanding of the way our society responds to issues of death and dying The trans disciplinary research which informs this discussion is situated in the disciplines of bioethics and palliative care Postmodern notions of discourse and power are used to explore the organizational approach of one hospice Karuna Hospice Service to working with the dying In modern Western technological societies biomedicine is the dominant discourse which underpins our care of the terminally ill Bioethics has recently emerged as a discipline concerned with resolving the many ethical dilemmas arising from such a physiological technologized approach to death Rather than add to such studies this research looks into the direction of alternative ways of responding to the dying in our community KHS was chosen for this research as it presented the possibility of a holistic and spiritual alternative to the positivist reductionist hegemony of scientific medicine The research focus is on establishing and describing this difference and exploring how such an organization could maintain resistance to mainstream medicine The research findings are shared with the intent of using the material and insights gained to explore important issues presently arising in bioethics and palliative care for example the recent critique of Principalism in bioethics and the methodological difficulties restricting research into spirituality for palliative care      Dying, Death, and Grief Michael A. Simpson,1987 Listing of over 1700 books published mostly since 1979 Most entries are annotated Main section is arranged alphabetically by titles separate sections cover murder terrorism and political uses of death and nuclear holocaust and megadeath Entries are rated with one to five asterisks Author subject categories indexes      Hospice and Palliative Care Music Therapy Russell E. Hilliard,2005      Living, Dying, Grieving Dixie Dennis,2009 Taking a life education approach this resource offers helpful tips and techniques for mastering a fear of death suggests helpful ideas for taking care of the business of dying and encourages students to live longer by adding excitement into their lives      Staying Close Michael Waterhouse,2003 This volume explores how we are learning to cope with death in a secular age Waterhouse explores how care of the dying is changing and the new approaches to funerals and bereavement basing the book on interviews with health professionals with those facing death and with the bereaved He relates individual stories to the wider social ethical and medical problems and though some of the stories show painful experiences they also reveal people s resilience and courage Underpinning the book is the idea that the more pro active we are the better will be our experiences of dying and grieving      Alternative Environments for Dying Patricia Lynne Cohen,1978      A Bit of Heaven for the Few? David Clark,2005      Medical Journal of Australia ,1989      The Life Work of Dr. Elisabeth Kübler-Ross and Its Impact on the Death Awareness Movement Michèle Catherine Gantois Chaban,2000 Ontario based clinical thanatologist Chaban traces Kubler Ross influence on the field and health science education over the past quarter century She argues that her paradigms which have dominated care of the dying in North America s health care system may work in a general way to deal with most situations of loss but may not be effective and specific enough to care for the dying or the bereaved or to provide occupational support for professional caregivers Rather she contends thanatology must begin to distinguish itself within palliative or hospice care with specific clinical educational and research considerations The treatise seems to have been a doctoral dissertation for the University of Wales The text is double spaced The computer generated index is fairly useless Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Facing Death and the Life After Billy Graham,1987 We are called to confront the sobering fact of death realistically but always with the confidence that through our relationship with Christ we can conquer this final enemy      Death and Dying Barbara A. Backer,Natalie Hannon,Noreen A. Russell,1994 It is important to recognize and accept the uniqueness of each individual s response to loss dying and death This excellent second edition conveys the message that understanding and care should be valued as highly as efficiency and cost effectiveness in today s high tech medical system Death and Dying Understanding and Care identifies patterns of response to dying and death in American society it discusses problems associated with the cessation of life and it examines the structure and process of interaction among the terminally ill their families and helping professionals THIS TITLE IS DESIGNATED AS A KIP KEEP IN PRINT EDITION AS OF 1600 AND WILL BE REPRINTED BASED ON CUSTOMER NEED DEMAND      Grief

R. M. Youngson,1989 The Social Services Bibliography, 1980-1985 Max McMurdo,1985 Psycho-Oncology Jimmie C. Holland,2010-03-22 Psycho Oncology was the first comprehensive text in the field of psychosocial oncology and remains the gold standard today Written by 67 internationally known psychiatry and palliative care experts the resource is truly an essential reference for all providers of palliative care Joining Oxford Medicine Online this resource offers the best quality content in an easy to access format Online only benefits include downloading images and figures to PowerPoint and downloading chapters to PDF Human Development Robert V. Kail,John C. Cavanaugh,1996 Kail and Cavanaugh tell the story of the life span in a narrative that is intuitive and holistic eliminating the redundancy of describing the life span via the traditional 5 x 3 of similar organizational structure used by many texts for the course The book's four part structure reflects early childhood the school years the working raising children years and later life a structure that makes sense to students and more accurately depicts the developmental process The author's four part structure reflects the emerging view in several disciplines that development needs to be viewed in larger segments to reflect both the reality of large individual differences not all five year olds are the same and the linkages across the life span of such domains as memory language perception etc To reflect these issues the text includes age specific chapters where essential prenatal development adolescence entering adulthood middle age later life and more topical chapter where appropriate to reflect the continuity of development entering the social world the school years relationships work in adulthood and dying and bereavement The New Ourselves, Growing Older Paula Brown Doress-Worters,Diana Laskin Siegal,1994 Offers women over forty advice on housing health and more Death and Dying Janelle Rohr,1987 Opposing viewpoints create a running debate on such issues as coping with death suicide euthanasia and care for the dying
