clarifies the relationships between religion and theology and discusses the barriers to women's participation in theological discourse as well as the ways women overcame or avoided these barriers. The essays analyze theological ideas in a variety of genres. The first group of essays discusses women's nonfiction prose including women's devotional writings on the Apocalypse, devotional prose by Christina Rossetti and its similarities to the work of Hildegard von Bingen, periodical prose by Anna Jameson and Julia Wedgwood and the letters of Harriet and Jemima Newman, sisters of John Henry Newman. Other essays examine the novel, presenting analysis of the theologies of novelists Emma Jane Worboise, Charlotte M Yonge and Mary Arnold Ward. Further essays discuss the theological ideas of two purity reformers, Josephine Butler and Ellice Hopkins, while the final essays move beyond Victorian Christianity to examine spiritualist and Buddhist theology by women. This collection will be important to students and scholars interested in Victorian culture and ideas, literary critics, historians and theologians and particularly to those in women's studies and religious studies.

Littell's Living Age, 1872 Revitalizing European Rituals JEREMY BOISSEVAIN, 2025-04-30 First published in 1992. Revitalizing European Rituals explores why revitalization of celebrations is taking place in communities throughout Europe. The festive behaviour appears to contradict the sober, rational conduct associated with modernization and industrialization. The contributors examine fairs, carnivals, fiestas, Holy Week and national rituals in Britain, Poland, Spain, Italy, Malta and Greece. They have lived and worked in the communities they describe, celebrated the festivities they analyse and have discussed them with the celebrants. The underlying reasons for the revival are complex and examined fully. The conclusions provide surprising insights into the changes sweeping across Europe. This book will be valuable reading for researchers and lecturers in social anthropology, sociology, religious studies, cultural studies and tourism.
