Over the Edge

Valerie J. Matsumoto, Blake Allmendinger, 2023-09-01 From the Gold Rush to rush hour the history of the American West is fraught with diverse subversive and at times downright eccentric elements. This provocative volume challenges traditional readings of western history and literature and redraws the boundaries of the American West with absorbing essays ranging widely on topics from tourism to immigration from environmental battles to interethnic relations and from law to film. Taken together the essays reassess the contributions of a diverse and multicultural America to the West as they link western issues to global frontiers. Featuring the latest work by some of the best new writers both inside and outside academia the original essays in Over the Edge confront the traditional field of western American studies with a series of radical speculative and sometimes outrageous challenges. The collection reads the West through Ben Hur and the films of Mae West revises the western American literary canon to include the works of African American and Mexican American writers examines the implications of miscegenation law and American Indian blood quantum requirements and brings attention to the historical participation of Mexican and Japanese American women Native American slaves and Alaskan cannery workers in community life. From the Gold Rush to rush hour the history of the American West is fraught with diverse subversive and at times downright eccentric elements. This provocative volume challenges traditional readings of western history and literature and redraws the bo

Framing Disease Charles E. Rosenberg, Janet Lynne Golden, 1992 Many diseases discussed here endstage renal disease rheumatic fever parasitic infectious diseases coronary thrombosis came to be defined redefined and renamed over the course of several centuries. As these essays show the concept of disease has also been used to frame culturally resonant behaviors suicide homosexuality anorexia nervosa chronic fatigue syndrome Disease is also framed by public policy as the cases of industrial disability and of forensic psychiatry demonstrate Medical institutions as managers of people with disease come to have vested interests in diagnoses as the histories of facilities to treat tuberculosis or epilepsy reveal Ultimately the existence and conquest of disease serves to frame a society s sense of its own healthiness and to give direction to social reforms Bulletin of the History of Medicine ,1983 Vols for 1939 include the Transactions of the 15th annual meetings of the American Association of the History of Medicine 1939 Doctor Mom Chung of the Fair-Haired Bastards Judy Tzu-Chun Wu,2005-02-28 During World War II Mom Chung s was the place to be in San Francisco Soldiers movie stars and politicians gathered at her home to socialize to show their dedication to the Allied cause and to express their affection for Dr Margaret Chung 1889 1959 The first known American born Chinese female physician Chung established one of the first Western medical clinics in San Francisco s Chinatown in the 1920s She also became a prominent celebrity and behind the scenes political broker during World War II Chung gained national fame when she began adopting thousands of soldiers sailors and flyboys including Ronald Reagan Admiral Chester W Nimitz and Admiral William F Halsey Jr A pioneer in both professional and political realms Chung experimented in her personal life as well She adopted masculine dress and had romantic relationships with other women such as writer Elsa Gidlow and entertainer Sophie Tucker This is the first biography to explore Margaret Chung s remarkable and complex life It brings alive the bohemian and queer social milieus of Hollywood and San Francisco as well as the wartime celebrity community Chung cultivated Her life affords a rare glimpse into the possibilities of traversing racial gender and sexual boundaries of American society from the late Victorian era through the early Cold War period Library of Congress Name Headings with References Library of Congress,1980
