Crippling the Archive Jenifer L. Barclay, Stefanie Hunt-Kennedy, 2025-08-05 How do we explain the conspicuous absence of disability from the histories we write What forces and factors create this dynamic How can disability be everywhere and nowhere present and absent and obvious and overlooked in both the historical record and historians interpretations of the past Jenifer L Barclay and Stefanie Hunt Kennedy edit a collection of interdisciplinary essays that consider how and why physical sensory intellectual and psychological disabilities are underrepresented erased or distorted in the historical record The contributors draw on the methodology and practice of crippling to uncover disability in contested archives and explore ways to build inclusive archives accountable to and centered on disabled people and disability justice Throughout they show ableness informing the politics of the archive as a physical space a discriminatory record and a collection of silences An essential contribution to research methods and disability justice Crippling the Archive offers a blueprint for intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches that bridge disability studies history and archival studies
