The Hollow Grounds:

The Hollow Grounds Luc Schuiten, 2001-01-01 Six short stories that each showcase a different style of Schuiten's amazing work. Joined together by visitations from strange winged creatures, each tale in this volume centers around the effects of desire on man.

The Symphony of Roots Madeline Cortez, 2024-12-04 The Whisperwood is dying. Its emerald leaves fall like withered tears; the air thick with the stench of decay. A dissonant melody, the Symphony of Roots whispers on the poisoned wind, a dirge for a world on the brink of collapse. At the heart of this decay lies a chilling truth: humanity's reckless pursuit of forgotten technology has poisoned the very source of life. Lyra Vance, a young bard whose music resonates with the soul of the Whisperwood, feels the World Tree's agony as a shard in her own heart. Tasked by the Elderwood Council with a perilous pilgrimage into the blighted Hollow Grounds, she must uncover the source of the encroaching darkness. Her reluctant companion is Jeffrey Chandler, a seasoned ranger haunted by the death of his sister and skeptical of Lyra's mystical connection to the dying forest. Their journey is further complicated by Elizabeth Thomas, a brilliant botanist whose grief has warped into a desperate, potentially destructive obsession. As they venture deeper into the Hollow Grounds, they face not only grotesque creatures twisted by the blight but also the unraveling of their own fragile alliances. Jeffrey's pragmatism clashes with Lyra's faith, while Elizabeth's scientific fervor threatens to alienate them both. Whispers of a malevolent presence, the Nightshade, grow stronger, feeding on the World Tree's anguish. But the most immediate danger lies not in monstrous forms but in the secrets and betrayals that fester within their own ranks. Lyra's connection to the roots unveils a forgotten history, a time of symbiotic harmony between humans and nature, shattered by a lust for power. She discovers the Sunstone Amplifier is not the source of the corruption but a desperate attempt to contain a far deeper betrayal within the Council itself. This revelation forces Lyra to question everything she believes, forging an unlikely alliance with the grieving ranger as they confront a truth far more sinister than they could have imagined. With the fate of the Whisperwood hanging in the balance, Lyra must find a way to heal the ancient pact and silence the Symphony of Roots before its final devastating note is played. Can she restore balance to a dying world, or will the whispers of the forest fade into an eternal silence?
