The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg,2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters

The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past

Suitable for the Wilds Mary Percy Jackson,2006 The plea was advertised in the British Medical Journal in February 1929 seeking strong energetic Medical Women with post graduate experience in Midwifery for country work in western Canada A young Dr Mary Percy was intrigued After graduating with degrees in medicine and surgery from the University of Birmingham in 1927 she had been searching for the kind of opportunity which would offer both adventure and practical experience She answered the advertisement and set off for the Peace River region of Northern Alberta in June of 1929 Little did she know that her adventure in the Canadian north was to last more than seventy years

Suitable for the Wilds Letters from Northern Alberta 1929 1931 is a collection of Dr Mary Percy Jackson s letters written to family and friends in the early years of her practice from 1929 1931 The letters offer a fascinating glimpse at life in northern Alberta at the beginning of the Depression when the area was being farmed and settled by new European immigrants These homesteaders along with the area s Aboriginal and M tis population were Dr Percy s patients scattered throughout a territory covering nearly 400 square miles Vigilant about vaccination nutrition and preventive medicine she quickly proved to be a talented physician who was truly ahead of her time particularly in the area of tuberculosis treatment and prevention Dr Percy s dedication good nature and unfailing sense of humour shine through in her letters This delightful and captivating collection is a tribute to her indomitable spirit
