The Exmoor Files Liz Jones,2009-08-06 Moving from Islington to Exmoor one small step for mankind but a very large one for MAIL ON SUNDAY columnist Liz Jones Liz Jones lived the perfect urban life The immaculate Georgian townhouse in a leafy London square The glamorous career The Italian wardrobe stuffed with designer bags and shoes The much younger novelist husband But then it all goes horribly wrong She discovers her husband has been having numerous affairs with women who are younger dimmer slimmer and realises that her pursuit of perfection has never made her happy and probably never will And so she decides to start all over again burying herself alive in the middle of the bleak unforgiving wilderness that is Exmoor National Park She buys a wreck of a farmhouse with an original stable block 46 acres an ancient wood and a lake She rescues a nervous and abused but breathtakingly beautiful racehorse and hopes to live out the rural dream The reality of course is much much harder THE EXMOOR FILES is a funny honest often brutal real life account of what it is like to start all over again in an alien environment It is about discovering that you cannot find peace just by moving somewhere peaceful It is about mourning for a relationship and letting go of the life you thought you deserved

Slow Travel: North Devon & Exmoor Hilary

Bradt,2019 This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt s award winning North Devon Exmoor remains the only dedicated general guide to this compelling area North Devon s relative inaccessibility has been a deterrent to ugly development and Exmoor National Park is one of the smallest least well known and utterly delightful of all national parks The rugged western cliffs around Hartland Point are the most dramatic in Devon and the cliff top walking some of the best New to this edition are several nature reserves which didn t make it into the first edition and more in depth descriptions of the far western part of Devon abutting the Cornish border Also included are the Gnome Reserve and the Bakelite Museum just two of several quirky places in the region and expanded information on the island of Lundy in the Bristol Channel as well as unique coverage of the whole of Exmoor National Park straddling Devon and Somerset. Particularly intriguing are the many descriptions of country churches, the storerooms of history. The North Devon and Exmoor region is arguably the most scenic in the southwest. No other has this blend of wild, rugged coastline, deep river valleys, heather-covered moorland, family-friendly sandy beaches, great surfing and enchanting villages. Some of the prettiest villages in the southwest are found here with cream teas aplenty. Much information is unique to this guidebook, blending descriptions of little-known places and country pursuits with portraits of local characters past and present. The guide also places special emphasis on car-free travel, walking, local food, pubs and unusual or special accommodation. Whether you like to spend time exploring National Trust properties, discovering gardens, wildlife watching, Exmoor is home to Britain's largest mammal, the red deer, or indulging in more active pursuits such as coasteering, kayaking or just a gentle pony trek. Bradt's North Devon/Exmoor is the ideal companion for a successful visit.
