Let's know more about
Medieval Village Life!

Before 1066, nearly all people in England lived in the countryside. The majority of the people were peasants who worked the land for a thegn, who owned the land that they farmed.

Life in Norman England showed a great deal of continuity with Anglo-Saxon times. For example, after 1066, nearly everyone continued to live in villages.

Norman rule would bring wide-scale and far-reaching changes to life and work in both towns and the countryside.
