The History Of The Maghrib:

A History of the Maghrib in the Islamic Period Jamil M. Abun-Nasr, 1987-08-20 Building on the two previous editions of his History of the Maghrib Professor Abun Nasr has written a completely new history of North Africa within the Islamic period which begins with the Arab conquest and brings the story up to the present day He emphasises the factors which led to the adoption of Islam by practically the entire population the geographical position of the area which made it the main trade link between the Mediterranean world and the Sudan and led to its involvement in the confrontation between the Christian and Islamic worlds In Morocco this confrontation led to the emergence of a distinct religio political community ruled by sharifian dynasties and in the rest of the Maghrib to integration in the Ottoman empire The political and economic developments of the piratical regencies of Algeria Tunisia and Libya the establishment of European colonial rule the nationalist movements and Islamic religious reform are all treated in detail The balance between factual account and interpretation makes the book especially useful to students of African and Islamic history The History of the Maghrib, 1977

The History of the Maghrib Abdallah Laroui, 2015-03-08 This survey of North African history challenges both conventional attitudes toward North Africa and previously published histories written from the point of view of Western scholarship The book aims in Professor Laroui's words to give from within a decolonized vision of North African history just as the present leaders of the Maghrib are trying to modernize the economic and social structure of the country The text is divided into four parts the origins of the Islamic conquest the stages of Islamization the breakdown of central authority from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries and the advent of colonial rule Drawing on the methods of sociology and political science as well as traditional and modern historical approaches the author stresses the evolution marked by these four stages and the internal forces that affected it Until now the author contends North African history has been written either by colonial administrators and politicians concerned to defend foreign rule or by nationalist ideologues Both used an old fashioned historiography he asserts focusing on political events dynastic conflicts and theological controversies Here Abdallah Laroui seeks to present the viewpoint of a Maghribi concerning the history of his own country and to relate this history to the present structure of the region Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The History of the Maghrib, 1977 A History of the Maghrib in the Islamic Period Jamil M. Abun-Nasr, 1987 ~Aœ History of the Maghrib Jamil M. Abun-Nasr, 1971 The History of the Mohammedan Dynasties in Spain Ahmed ibn Mohammed al-Makkari, 2002 This is the original History of the Mohammedan Dynasties of Spain reprinted from the first edition of 1840

1843 It represents the foundations of our modern understanding of a great civilisation The History of the Maghrib 'Abd Allāh 'Arawī,1977 A History of the Maghrib Jamil M. Abun-Nasr,1975 A History of the Maghrib J. M. Abun-Nasr,1971-09-02 A History of the Maghrib Jamil Mir'i Abu al-Nasr,1971 Journal of the Historical Society of Nigeria ,1977-06 Maghreb Noir Paraska Tolan-Szkilnik,2023-07-11 Upon their independence Moroccan Algerian and Tunisian governments turned to the Global South and offered military and financial aid to Black liberation struggles Tangier and Algiers attracted Black American and Caribbean artists eager to escape American white supremacy Tunis hosted African filmmakers for the Journ es Cin matographiques de Carthage and young freedom fighters from across the African continent established military training camps in Morocco North Africa became a haven for militant artists and the region reshaped postcolonial cultural discourse through the 1960s and 1970s Maghreb Noir dives into the personal and political lives of these militant artists who collectively challenged the neo colonialist structures and the authoritarianism of African states Drawing on Arabic Spanish Portuguese French and English sources as well as interviews with the artists themselves Paraska Tolan Szkilnik expands our understanding of Pan Africanism geographically linguistically and temporally This network of militant artists departed from the racial solidarity extolled by many of their nationalist forefathers instead following in the footsteps of their intellectual mentor Frantz Fanon They argued for the creation of a new ideology of continued revolution one that was transnational trans racial and in defiance of the emerging nation states Maghreb Noir establishes the importance of North Africa in nurturing these global connections and uncovers a lost history of grassroots collaboration among militant artists from across the globe The Maghreb Anthony G. Pazzanita,1998 This selected and annotated bibliography of source materials on the Maghreb deals with over 500 books and articles on this fascinating region The volume will prove to be an indispensable reference tool to researrchers scholars business people and general readers The History of Northern Africa Britannica Educational Publishing,2010-10-01 Alternately identified with either the countries of the Mediterranean those of the Middle East or other African territories the nations of northern Africa occupy a unique physical and historical place After centuries of fielding various foreign invaders northern Africans have absorbed and co opted Greek Roman and Arab peoples and traditions among others Under the pervasive turmoil that has ensued after colonial rule and internecine warfare readers will encounter a region of various traditions that stands at a unique crossroads between several very different worlds The History Teacher ,1978 The Arabization and Islamization of the Maghrib Mahmud Ahmed Abuswa,1983 Maghrebian Studies Conference Anne-Marie Nisbet,1980 Majallat Al-Maghrib ,2009 Historical Dictionary of Morocco Aomar Boum,Thomas K. Park,2016-06-02 A historical reference work on Morocco must take as its subject al maghrib al aqsa the far west as the Arabic scholars have generally referred to the approximate region of present day Morocco roughly the north west corner of Africa but at times including much of the Iberian peninsula because the modern nation state is a relatively recent creation owing much to events in the late 19th and early 20th centuries External influences on Morocco tend to come across the narrow straits of Gibraltar to the north from the east along the Mediterranean litoral or up from the Sahara In each case access is constrained by geography and continued control from outside the region has been difficult to manage over the long term Although many of the dynasties that came to power in Morocco conquered much broader regions history and topology have so conspired that there is still more coherence to an historical focus on al maghrib al aqsa than is the case for most modern nation states This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Morocco contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Morocco
