An Introduction to World Cinema, 2d ed.

Aristides Gazetas,2016-04-28 Motion pictures are more than just entertainment In film studies courses in colleges and universities worldwide students and professors explore the social political technological and historical implications of cinema This textbook provides two things the history of film as an art form and an analysis of its impact on society and politics Chapters are arranged chronologically covering the major developments in film like the advent of talkies or the French New Wave Each era is examined in the context of several exemplary films commonly viewed in film studies courses Thus students can watch Birth of a Nation and Intolerance while studying the innovations made by D W Griffith from 1910 to 1919 The scope is global embracing the cinematic traditions of Asia Latin America and Africa as well as the ever important American and European output Thoughtful articles from film scholars are included The flexible structure of the text allows a variety of options for classroom use or personal study Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Cinemas of the World

James Chapman,2004-07-04 The cinema has been the pre eminent popular art form of the 20th century In Cinemas of the World James Chapman examines the relationship between film and society in the modern world film as entertainment medium film as a reflection of national cultures and preoccupations film as an instrument of propaganda He also explores two interrelated issues that have recurred throughout the history of cinema the economic and cultural hegemony of Hollywood on the one hand and on the other the attempts of film makers elsewhere to establish indigenous national cinemas drawing on their own cultures and societies Chapman examines the rise to dominance of Hollywood cinema in the silent and early sound periods He discusses the characteristic themes of American movies from the Depression to the end of the Cold War especially those found in the western and film noir genres that are often used as vehicles for exploring issues central to us society and politics He looks at national cinemas in various European countries in the period between the end of the First World War and the end of the Second which all exhibit the formal and aesthetic properties of modernism The emergence of the so called new cinemas of Europe and the wider world since 1960 are also explored Chapman is a tough thinking original writer an engaging excellent piece of work David Lancaster Film and History

World Cinema

Shekhar Deshpande,Meta Mazaj,2018-01-17 World Cinema A Critical Introduction is a comprehensive yet accessible guide to film industries across the globe From the 1980s onwards new technologies and increased globalization have radically altered the landscape in which films are distributed and exhibited Films are made from the large scale industries of India Hollywood and Asia to the small productions in Bhutan and Morocco They are seen in multiplexes palatial art cinemas in Cannes traveling theatres in rural India and on millions of hand held

mobile screens Authors Deshpande and Mazaj have developed a method of charting this new world cinema that makes room for divergent perspectives traditions and positions while also revealing their interconnectedness and relationships of meaning In doing so they bring together a broad range of issues and examples theoretical concepts viewing and production practices film festivals large industries such as Nollywood and Bollywood and smaller and emerging film cultures into a systemic yet flexible map of world cinema The multi layered approach of this book aims to do justice to the depth dynamism and complexity of the phenomenon of world cinema For students looking to films outside of their immediate context this book offers a blueprint that will enable them to transform a casual encounter with a film into a systematic inquiry into world cinema The Oxford History of World Cinema Geoffrey Nowell-Smith,1996 Oxford History of World Cinema ,1997
