The House on the Vecht Robert Dundas, 1979

The Letters of Gertrude Stein and Carl Van Vechten, 1913-1946

Gertrude Stein, Carl Van Vechten, 2013 This monumental collection of correspondence between Gertrude Stein and critic novelist and photographer Carl Van Vechten provides crucial insight into Stein's life, art and artistic milieu as well as Van Vechten's support of major cultural projects such as the Harlem Renaissance. From their first meeting in 1913 Stein and Van Vechten formed a unique and powerful relationship and Van Vechten worked vigorously to publish and promote Stein's work. Existing biographies of Stein including her own autobiographical writings omit a great deal about her experiences and thought. They lack the ordinary detail of what Stein called daily everyday living: the immediate concerns, objects, people and places that were the grist for her writing. These letters not only vividly represent those details but also showcase Stein and Van Vechten's private selves as writers. Edward Burns's extensive annotations include detailed cross-referencing of source materials.

Gender and Self-Fashioning at the Intersection of Art and Science Catherine Powell-Warren, 2025-10-01 At once collector, botanist, reader, artist and patron, Agnes Block is best described as a cultural producer. A member of an influential network in her lifetime, today she remains a largely obscure figure. The socioeconomic and political barriers faced by early modern women, together with a male-dominated tradition in art history, have meant that too few stories of women's roles in the creation, production and consumption of art have reached us. This book seeks to write Block and her contributions into the art and cultural history of the seventeenth-century Netherlands, highlighting the need for and advantages of a multifaceted approach to research on early modern women. Examining Block's achievements, relationships and objects reveals a woman who was independent, knowledgeable, self-aware and not above self-promotion. Though her gender brought few opportunities and many barriers, Agnes Block succeeded in fashioning herself as Flora Batava, a liefhebber at the intersection of art and science.

Carl Van Vechten and the Harlem Renaissance

Leon Coleman, 1998 This book evaluates Carl Van Vechten's contribution to the Harlem Renaissance by presenting hitherto unexamined documentary evidence. The author draws on correspondence, manuscripts, personal memorabilia and published materials to examine the origins and development of the period in the 1920s, which was termed the New Negro Renaissance. In the later years of the 1920s, as a result of the success of his novel Nigger Heaven, Carl Van Vechten received extensive publicity associating him with Harlem and with the Harlem Renaissance. The vehement controversy which the book aroused among African American critics and the black press, who attacked it, and the African American authors and friends of Van Vechten, who defended it, obscured the true extent of Van Vechten's role in the Harlem Renaissance. This study sheds light on the Van Vechten controversy which has continued to the present day. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Minnesota, 1969, revised with new preface.
