The Huaqiao Warriors Chinese Resistance Movement In The Philippines 1942-1945:

The Huaqiao Warriors Yuk-wai Yung Li, 1996 The Battle of Manila Nicholas Evan Sarantakes, 2025 Douglas

MacArthur had a special relationship with the city of Manila. Many years before when he had decided to make a career in the U S Army like his father and had bounced around the globe he kept coming back to the city. He received his first promotion in Manila and contracted malaria so severe the Army had to send him back to the United States. The city was a constant in a life without many others. He was by any measure an exceptional soldier. At the U S Military Academy he earned an athletic letter in baseball, became the First Captain of the Corps of Cadets and finished first in a class of ninety-three. Commissioned in the Corps of Engineers he had his first assignment in the Philippines. China and Her Neighbours Michael Tai, 2019-09-15 For centuries China was confident in its role as the Middle Kingdom, the undisputed cultural, economic and political powerhouse of Asia. Today with China once again a leading player on the world stage, countries across the continent are facing an uncertain future. Does China's rise threaten its neighbours? And what ultimately is its end goal? Nowhere are these questions more pressing than in the Pacific where China's maritime neighbours find themselves directly in the path of the country's expanding territorial claims. In this rich historical exploration Michael Tai finds answers to these and other questions through an in-depth exploration of China's past. Spanning thousands of years of Chinese and Asian history, China and Her Neighbours looks at China's evolving relations with Japan, Vietnam, the Philippines and Malaysia. While the disputes in the Pacific have attracted widespread attention, very few investigations have considered the wider historical context of these tensions.

Figures of Criminality in Indonesia, the Philippines, and Colonial Vietnam Vicente L. Rafael, 2018-05-31 A complex examination of criminality and the criminal as constructs and active presences in Southeast Asia. Contributors explore such themes as surveillance, incarceration, law and custom, secrecy and corruption. A fascinating study of power and subversion in the modern postcolonial nation-state. Contributors include Daniel S. Lev, Henk M. J. Maier, Rudolf Mrazek, James T. Siegel and others. Philippine Studies, 1998 German-Speaking Jewish Refugees in Asia, 1930-1950 Joanne Miyang Cho, Eric Kurlander, Douglas McGetchin, 2025-03-31 Although most perished, hundreds of thousands of Central European Jews escaped the Holocaust; tens of thousands of these Jewish refugees ended up in East Asia, Southeast Asia or South Asia. Taking a global and transnational approach, this volume examines the cultural, political and socioeconomic encounters among and between Asian and European states and empires. Central European Jews and Asians between 1930 and 1950, offering important case studies that address the policies toward and experiences of German-speaking Jews across East Asia, Southeast Asia and South Asia. The strength of this volume lies not only in its efforts to include multiple theoretical perspectives which integrate German Jewish, Asian and Migration Studies, but also in the original empirical research on which it is based. Engaging directly with the rich and growing historiography on the origins, course and consequences of the Holocaust in East, Southeast and South Asia, this volume provides a framework in which we can better understand how global traditions of empire and colonialism matter in our efforts to understand the Holocaust while indicating that Asian states and peoples were keenly aware of the so called Jewish Question and made efforts though widely differentiated to provide shelter from the Nazi storm German Speaking Jewish Refugees in Asia 1930 1950 will appeal to students and scholars alike interested in the history of Jewish refugees in the twentieth century as well as all those interested in the modern history of German speaking Central Europe and Asia Southeast Asia over Three Generations James T. Siegel, Audrey R.

Kahin, 2018-05-31 In honor of Benedict Anderson's many years as a teacher and his profound contributions to the field of Southeast Asian studies the editors have collected essays from a number of the many scholars who studied with him These articles deal with the literature politics history and culture of Southeast Asia addressing Benedict Anderson's broad concerns

Chinese Big Business in the Philippines Theresa C. Cariño, 1998 A study of the Federation of Filipino Chinese Chambers of Commerce and Industry The author begins with the organization's founding in 1954 and traces its development focusing on the leadership She also examines challenges to the survival of the Federation that have arisen from the dynamism of local politics the increasing social integration of the ethnic Chinese community and economic globalization She ultimately uses the Federation as a case study to explore the problem of political leadership in the business community Times Academic Press is in Singapore distributed in the US by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Likhaan Book

Pison, 2005 Public Policy, 1997 The Huaqiao Warriors Yuk-wai Yung Li, 1995-01-01 Among the extremely limited English language literature on the Chinese resistance movement in the Philippines during the Japanese occupation this book is unique in making use of documents from the United States National Archives supplemented by memorials and articles recently published in China and the Philippines While the reliability of these original sources is questionable the difficulty of interpreting these sources was dealt with openly and effort was made to compare contradictory accounts objectively Meanwhile the characteristics of the Chinese resistance movement were summarized in its historical social context and the long term effect of the resistance movement on the Chinese community in the Philippines was addressed The book thus fills an important gap in Philippine historiography on the Second World War and in the understanding of the Philippine Chinese community and the effect of Japanese occupation upon it The Chinese in the Philippines Teresita Ang See, 1990

□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□, 2001 □□□□□□□□, 1997 The Encyclopedia of the Chinese Overseas Chinese Heritage Center (Singapore), 1998 The first of its kind The Encyclopedia of the Chinese Overseas provides a panoramic and comparative view across past and present overseas Chinese communities world wide The Chinese diaspora has inherited mainland experiences and they have modified and enriched them by transplantation to other continents and civilizations This book includes the most important aspects of these experiences The volume is geographically and thematically organized The largest section consists of country by country profiles of individual Chinese communities The rest divides into thematic sections on origins migration institutions ties to China and interethnic relations Each of the sections is meant to be read continuously They are accessible scholarly and authoritative Complex material is clearly and vividly presented in text boxed features maps graphs tables and archival and contemporary pictures Chinese proper names and terms are identified with their characters in a glossary while full references to Chinese English French Spanish and Russian works are given in the bibliography
