The Martyred:

Cinema Under National Reconstruction Hye Seung Chung, 2024 Drawing upon primary documents from the Korean Film Archive's digitized database and framing South Korean film censorship from a transnational perspective Cinema Under National Reconstruction redefines censorship as a productive feedback system where both state regulators and filmmakers played active roles in shaping the new narrative or sentiment of the nation on the big screen

Cold War Friendships Josephine Nock-Hee Park, 2016 Cold War Friendships explores the plight of the Asian ally of the American wars in Korea and Vietnam Enlisted into proxy warfare this figure is not a friend but a friendly a wartime convenience enlisted to serve a superpower It is through this deeply unequal relation however that the Cold War friendly secures her own integrity and insists upon her place in the neocolonial imperium This study reads a set of highly enterprising wartime subjects who make their way to the US via difficult attachments American forces ventured into newly postcolonial Korea and Vietnam both plunged into civil wars to draw the dividing line of the Cold War The strange success of containment and militarization in Korea unraveled in Vietnam but the friendly marks the significant continuity between these hot wars In both cases the friendly justified the fight she was also a political necessity who redeployed cold war alliances and remarkably made her way to America As subjects in process and indeed proto Americans these figures are prime literary subjects whose processes of becoming are on full display in Asian American novels and testimonies of these wars Literary writings on both of these conflicts are presently burgeoning and Cold War Friendships performs close analyses of key texts whose stylistic constraints and contradictions shot through with political and historical nuance present complex gestures of alliance

Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic powder keg border bridge or Europe's Other the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest national contest and ethnic divide Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local regional and national levels In this ongoing process of heritage re-interpretation tourism is more than just a dark spectacle While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Kosovo this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma Unlike many previous studies this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology art history geography and political studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the
