The Meditations Of My Heart:

The Meditations of My Heart Robert Burton, 2019-05-16 The intention of this book is to help you develop your own meditations When we hear the word meditation there may be a variety of thoughts that come to mind Various forms of meditation are practiced throughout the world In order to understand how the term is used in the creation of these writings we should first take a journey into Biblical meditation The oldest languages in the world have their origin in the Middle East and ancient Hebrew is one of those languages Within the Hebrew culture we find the word Hagah which translated into English means to meditate The word meditate first appears in Joshua 1 8 where it says to meditate day and night on God s Word Perhaps the most well known passage where we find Hagah is in Psalm 1 2 where again it encourages us to meditate on God s Word day and night The idea in both verses is that of chewing Just as chewing our food many times before swallowing will aid in efficient digestion so the continual examination of God s Word will bring wisdom and understanding The New Testament Greek word meletao translated meditate renders to care for to attend to to practice to be diligent to ponder to imagine Therefore we see a connection between Old and New Testament meditation When we put the two together we can conclude that Biblical meditation begins in quiet thought on God s Word but leads to sound and action the Psalmist wrote May the words of my mouth and the mediation of my heart be pleasing acceptable in your sight O Lord my Rock and my Redeemer Psalm 19 14 The Apostle Paul instructed a young minister to devote himself completely to meditating on God s Word With this in mind I have made it a practice to meditate on God s Word by reading a passage over and over while examining each word and its content and by listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit to impart wisdom and understanding My prayer is that you will meditate on these devotional and take notes on what God reveals and speaks to you personally Then put your meditation into action by stepping out in faith equipped with God s wisdom Bible Meditations for All Your Needs Lloyd Hildebrand, 2015-04-05 Bible Meditations for All Your Needs will help the reader to dive into the deeper things of God and this will lead to success peace joy and victory The reader will learn to trust God for all their needs realizing through Bible meditation that God will supply all their need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus See Philippians The Works of the Rev. William Bridge, M.A. William Bridge, 1845 The Meditations of St. Augustine, His Treatise of the Love of God, Soliloquies, and Manual Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1818 Sound of the Trumpet Cassandra L. McCray, 2019-08-06 Sound of the Trumpet is a weekly devotional that will equip and encourage the reader to develop a relationship with God During the course of the devotion the reader will gain knowledge on meditation fasting and most importantly on how to know God for who he is to humanity The trumpet is a well known instrument utilized through biblical history but in this course it prepares the reader how significant it is in the return of our savior The Meditations of My Heart Robert P. Burton, 2011-05-01 The intention of this book is to help you develop your own meditations Various forms of meditation are practiced throughout the world and in order to understand how this term is used in the creation of these writings we should week devotional you will read inspiring personal stories that will encourage you to live boldly for the Lord and face every obstacle with a renewed hope in Christ It is important that we always keep the word of God close to our hearts and fresh in our minds so that we can release the word from our mouth when trouble comes our way The bible declares in Psalm 1 2 3 that if we meditate on God s word we will be like trees with strong roots that are able to withstand any storm or strong wind We do not have to buckle under the pressures of life My desire is to be able to stand for God and always make Him smile So prayer is simple Lord let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight O Lord my strength and my Redeemer Amen *Contemplations and meditations on the public life of ...
