The Master Builder:

The Master Builder Henrik Ibsen, 2019-03-27 With The Master Builder or Master Builder Solness as the title runs in the original we enter upon the final stage in Ibsen's career. You are essentially right the poet wrote to Count Prozor in March 1900 when you say that the series which closes with the Epilogue When We Dead Awaken began with Master Builder Solness. Ibsen says Dr. Brahms wrote in Christiania all the four works which he thus seems to bracket together Solness, Eyolf, Borkman and When We Dead Awaken. He returned to Norway in July 1891 for a stay of indefinite length but the restless wanderer over Europe was destined to leave his home no more. He had not returned however to throw himself as of old into the battle of the passing day. Polemics are entirely absent from the poetry of his old age. He leaves the State and Society at peace. He who had departed as the creator of Falk in Love's Comedy now on his return gazes into the secret places of human nature and the wonder of his own soul.

The Master Builder Henrik Ibsen, 1994-03-01 The most gripping of Ibsen's later brooding self-portraits. The Master Builder explores the nature of a messianic hero pulled down from the heights to reside in the community of men and now painfully laboring to drag himself up again.

Plays for Performance Series The Master Builder and Other Plays Henrik Ibsen, 2014-10-02 Ibsen's greatest late plays in superb modern translations part of the new Penguin Ibsen series. This volume includes The Master Builder, Little Eyolf, John Gabriel Borkman and When We Dead Awaken. Ibsen's last four plays written in his old age in Oslo. In The Master Builder a married middle aged architect becomes bewitched by a strange young woman who claims to have known him for years. A sudden death in Little Eyolf is the catalyst that drives a couple into a greater understanding of themselves. In John Gabriel Borkman a banker recently released from prison must choose between his wife and her sister while a sculptor on holiday is reunited with the woman who inspired his greatest art in When We Dead Awaken. The new Penguin series of Ibsen's major plays offer the best available editions in English under the general editorship of Tore Rem. All the plays have been freshly translated by leading translators and are based on the definitive Norwegian edition of Ibsen's works. This volume includes an introduction by Toril Moi on the themes of death and human limitation in the plays and additional editorial apparatus by Tore Rem. Henrik Ibsen (1828-1906) is often called the Father of Modern Drama. Born in the small Norwegian town of Skien he left Norway in 1864 for a twenty one year long voluntary exile in Italy and Germany. After successes with the verse dramas Brand and Peer Gynt he turned to prose writing his great twelve play cycle of society dramas between 1877 and 1899. This included The Pillars of Society, A Doll's House, Ghosts, An Enemy of the People, The Wild Duck, Rosmersholm, The Lady from the Sea, Hedda Gabler, The Master Builder, Little Eyolf, John Gabriel Borkman and finally When We Dead Awaken. Ibsen returned to Norway in 1891 and died there at the age of seventy eight. Barbara J. Haveland and Anne Marie Stanton Ife are both freelance literary translators. Toril Moi is Professor of English Theater Studies and Philosophy at Duke University. Her books include Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism (2006). Tore Rem is Professor of British literature at the University of Oslo and author of Henry Gibson Henrik.
