The Meadow Mouse:

The Meadow Mouse Annet Planten, Ries Moonen, 1979 The Tale of Master Meadow Mouse Arthur Scott Bailey, 2017-06-22 Master Meadow Mouse was pudgy His legs were so short and his tail was so short and his ears were so short that he looked even fatter than he really was And goodness knows he was plump enough especially toward fall when the corn was ripe He lived in Farmer Green s meadow And he never harmed anybody For Master Meadow Mouse was fat and good natured Friendly folk such as Paddy Muskrat and Billy Woodchuck liked him because he was good natured They always smiled pleasantly when they spoke of him And unfriendly folk such as Peter Mink and Tommy Fox liked him because he was fat When they mentioned him they always grinned horribly and licked their lips Now it was a pity that in Pleasant Valley where Farmer Green s meadow lay there were many of the fat loving kind Not only Peter Mink and Tommy Fox but Grumpy Weasel Solomon Owl Ferdinand Frog Henry Hawk and even Miss Kitty Cat were usually on the watch for Master Meadow Mouse Naturally he soon learned to be on the lookout for them And if he hadn t seen them first he would never have grown up to be Mister Meadow Mouse In spite of all those enemies Master Meadow Mouse managed to enjoy life in Farmer Green s meadow Usually he found plenty of seeds to eat He liked to swim in Broad Brook And in winter when the snow was deep he made tunnels beneath it and a nest too which was snug and warm under the thick white blanket that covered it The only time Master Meadow Mouse was ever known to lose his temper was when Farmer Green mowed the meadow Under the high grass Master Meadow Mouse had been able to run about his well beaten paths unseen by hawks But with the grass cut and raked leaving only naked stubble he couldn t hide even from old Mr Crow It was no wonder that he agreed with Bobby Bobolink s wife The Bobolink family were so upset by haying that they moved to Cedar Swamp at the very first clatter of the mowing machine And when Master Meadow Mouse bade them good by Mrs Bobolink said to him What a shame that Farmer Green should break up a happy home like ours And Master Meadow Mouse remarked that it was very careless of Farmer Green He might have waited till the snow comes at least before cutting the grass said Master Meadow Mouse You d better move to Cedar Swamp with us Mrs Bobolink suggested It s a fine place I know for we lived there last fall But Master Meadow Mouse didn t want to move The grass will grow again he explained Farmer Green can t stop the grass from growing no matter how often he cuts it And of course that was quite true After haying Master Meadow Mouse had to be more careful than ever He knew that the hawks would scan the meadow many times a day in hopes of catching a glimpse of his reddish brown back Luckily he succeeded in dodging them And he dodged a good many other fierce rascals long after winter with its snow had descended on Pleasant Valley Yet he never complained He said that danger kept the days and nights too from being dull Control of Destructive Mice Francis Earl Garlough, Donald A.
