The Meditations of Guigo I, Prior of the Charterhouse Guigo I (Prior of the Grande Chartreuse), 1995      The Meditations of Guigo I, Prior of the Charterhouse Guigo I (Prior of the Grande Chartreuse), 1995      Meditations of Guigo, Prior of the Charterhouse Guigo I (Prior of the Grande Chartreuse), 1951      Carthusian Monasticism Stephen J. Molvarec, S. J., Demetrio S. Yocum, 2025-12-29 This volume seeks through the work of a number of experts in various fields to explore monastic life as embodied by Carthusian monks and nuns Medieval and Early Modern Carthusians are omnipresent in a number of topics in medieval studies literature history art religious life and the development of intellectual and theological thought Moreover these religious men and women were significant contributors to Medieval and Early Modern culture society and spirituality Despite Carthusians influence and popularity during this time they have often escaped scholarly attention As a multi pronged and interdisciplinary study this volume offers a comprehensive yet nuanced re examination of the Carthusian way of life one that often challenges long standing assumptions about the Carthusians and their place within Western Christianity and civilization The breadth and depth of this volume will appeal not only to the seasoned scholar and graduate students but also to newcomers to the field      The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Latin Literature Ralph Hexter, David Townsend, 2012-01-20 The twenty eight essays in this handbook represent the best current thinking in the study of Latin language and literature in the Middle Ages Contributing authors both senior scholars and gifted younger thinkers among them not only illuminate the field as traditionally defined but also offer fresh insights into broader questions of literary history cultural interaction world literature and language in history and society Their studies vividly illustrate the field s complexities on a wide range of topics including canonicity literary styles and genres and the materiality of manuscript culture At the same time they suggest future possibilities for the necessarily provisional and open ended work essential to the pursuit of medieval Latin studies The overall approach of The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Latin Literature makes this volume an essential resource for students of the ancient world interested in the prolonged after life of the classical period s cultural complexes for medieval historians for scholars of other medieval literary traditions and for all those interested in delving more deeply into the fascinating more than millennium long passage between the ancient Mediterranean world and what we consider modernity      Reading in the Wilderness Jessica Brantley, 2008-09-15 Just as twenty first century technologies like blogs and wikis have transformed the once private act of reading into a public enterprise devotional reading experiences in the Middle Ages were dependent upon an oscillation between the solitary and the communal In Reading in the Wilderness Jessica Brantley uses tools from both literary criticism and art history to illuminate Additional MS 37049 an illustrated Carthusian miscellany housed in the British Library This revealing artifact Brantley argues closes the gap between group spectatorship and private study in late medieval England Drawing on the work of W J T Mitchell Michael Camille and others working at the image text crossroads Reading in the Wilderness addresses the manuscript s texts and illustrations to examine connections between reading and performance within the solitary monk's cell and also outside Brantley reimagines the medieval codex as a site where the meanings of images and words are performed both publicly and privately in the act of reading

Meditation as Spiritual Therapy Matthew McWhorter, Matthew R. McWhorter, 2024 Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux d 1153 to Pope Eugene III d 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy

The Text in the Community Jill Mann, Maura Nolan, 2006 These essays discuss a wide range of literary and art historical topics covering the full chronological span of the medieval period

The Freedom of Obedience Carthusian, 1998 The spiritual centre of the human person the self writes the author maintains its fundamental identity for the whole of life on earth and is destined for participation in the eternal life of God The person is not a succession of separate points at the mercy of the conditions of the moment God has given us a share in his power as creator and to create ourselves through our liberty to go beyond ourselves towards absolute values These reflections by a Carthusian novice master for those training for the life of silent love show that in the obedience born of love one responds to the all encompassing deeply intimate and sustaining love of God

International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1997

Western Mysticism, 1978 The study of human consciousness and its relationship to our lives and needs has aroused a great deal of interest in today's world This interest extends into many areas of religion philosophy psychology sociology and literature Part of this trend is a renewed interest in mysticism most of which has been directed toward Oriental mysticism However many people are unaware of the rich and vital mystical tradition

Western culture has to offer The purpose of this bibliography is to help create a deeper awareness of Western mysticism
