Beckman,2012-09-17 The Cambridge Companion to Christian Mysticism is a multi authored interdisciplinary guide to the study of Christian mysticism with an emphasis on the third through the seventeenth centuries The book is thematically organized in terms of the central contexts practices and concepts associated with the mystical life in early medieval and early modern Christianity This book looks beyond the term mysticism which was an early modern invention to explore the ways in which the ancient terms mystic and mystical were used in the Christian tradition what kinds of practices modes of life and experiences were described as mystical What understanding of Christianity and of the life of Christian perfection is articulated through mystical interpretations of scripture mystical contemplation mystical vision mystical theology or mystical union This volume both provides a clear introduction to the Christian mystical life and articulates a bold new approach to the study of mysticism

Meditations Guigues Ier (prieur de Chartreuse),1951     Carthusian Monasticism Stephen J. Molvarec, S. J.,Demetrio S. Yocom,2025-12-29 This volume seeks through the work of a number of experts in various fields to explore monastic life as embodied by Carthusian monks and nuns Medieval and Early Modern Carthusians are omnipresent in a number of topics in medieval studies literature history art religious life and the development of intellectual and theological thought Moreover these religious men and women were significant contributors to Medieval and Early Modern culture society and spirituality Despite Carthusians influence and popularity during this time they have often escaped scholarly attention As a multi pronged and interdisciplinary study this volume offers a comprehensive yet nuanced re examination of the Carthusian way of life one that often challenges long standing assumptions about the Carthusians and their place within Western Christianity and civilization The breadth and depth of this volume will appeal not only to the seasoned scholar and graduate students but also to newcomers to the field Meditations of Guigo, Prior of the Charterhouse. Translated ... with an Introduction by John J. Jolin de Castro Novo GUIGO (General of the Carthusians),John J. JOLIN,1951 Meditation as Spiritual Therapy Matthew McWhorter,Matthew R. McWhorter,2024 Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux d 1153 to Pope Eugene III d 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy
