The Memory Artists Jeffrey Moore, 2004 Noel Burun has hypermnesia and synaesthesia his memory is unrelentingly exact and when people speak he sees their words as vibrant explosions of colour often leaving him befuddled and bewildered His mother Stella on the other hand is slowly sinking into the quicksand of Alzheimer's A man who remembers too much and a woman who remembers too little both struggle to make sense of their worlds in a house bloated with memories Norval is Noel's double a one time novelist and full time Lothario whose memory is tainted by an unfinished love story He along with Samira who is trying to escape a former identity and JJ who is trapped by nostalgia for his childhood all have a role to play in Noel's sometimes heartbreaking and often hilarious quest to find a cure for his mother's condition THE MEMORY ARTISTS is the outstanding hilarious second novel from a writer whose work is so full of quirks and quick turns wit and erudition The Guardian that readers will find it impossible to put down

The Memory Artists Jeffrey Moore, 2007-04-01 Winner of the Canadian Authors Association Award for Best Novel Noel Burun has synesthesia and hypermnesia he sees words in vibrant explosions of colors and shapes which collide and commingle to form a memory so bitingly perfect that he can remember everything from the 1001 stories of The Arabian Nights to the color of his bib as a toddler But for all his mnemonic abilities he is confronted every day with a reality that is as sad as it is ironic his beloved mother Stella is stricken with Alzheimer's disease her memory slowly slipping into the quicksands of oblivion The Memory Artists follows Noel helped by a motley cast of friends on his quest to find a cure for his mother's affliction The results are at the same time darkly funny quirkily inventive and very moving Alternating between third person narratives and the diaries of Noel and Stella Jeffrey Moore weaves a story filled with fantastic characters and a touch of suspense that gets at the very heart of what it means to remember and forget and that is a testament to the uplifting power of family and friendship
