The Militant Black Writer in Africa and the United States Mercer Cook, Stephen Evangelist Henderson, 1969 Essays originally presented at a symposium in 1968 survey the manifestations of protest in African and American black literature

The Black Theatre Movement in the United States and in South Africa Olga Barrios, 2008 El creixement dels moviments sociopolítics entre els anys seixanta i noranta als Estats Units i a Sudàfrica va establir els fermes fonaments sobre els quals amb una força i ímpetu sense precedents es va forjar el teatre negre d'aquests anys. Forma i contingut van sorgir a l'una del compromís polític i artístic adoptat per aquests artistes contra l'imperialisme, el colonialisme i el racisme occidentals. Per primera vegada en la història el teatre negre dels Estats Units i de Sudàfrica analitzava i valorava les arrels negres per a poder il·luminar la recerca d'un futur de llibertat. No obstant això, el context sociopolític i les circumstàncies específiques de cada país han generat igualment els trets distintius del teatre afronord-americà i negre sud-africà incloses les diferències de gènere manifestos en ramificacions artístiques totalment heterogènies i niques.

Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius E. Thompson, 2005-02-15 In 1965 Dudley F. Randall founded the Broadside Press, a company devoted to publishing, distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers. In so doing, he became a major player in the civil rights movement. Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity. Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget, Randall's unique skills made the press successful. He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry; most importantly, Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature. The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside, including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks, Margaret Walker, Mae Jackson, Lance Jeffers, Etheridge Knight, Sonia Sanchez, Nikki Giovanni, Audre Lorde, and Sterling D. Plumpp. His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans.

African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse. East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's, which is quite different from South Africa's, which has different influences on it than North Africa's. Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature, some of which has now been recorded. Arabic influence can be detected as well as European, especially French and English. Legends, myths, proverbs, riddles, and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature. This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography, primarily of English language sources. Accessed by subject, author, and title indexes.
