Talking Trees & Singing Whales Charles C. Case, 1985 Talking Trees & Singing Whales Charles C. Case, 1985

Hosting Earth Richard Kearney, Peter Klapes, Urwa Hameed, 2024-09-26 Hosting Earth is a timely and much needed volume in the emerging literature of environmental philosophy drawing upon art science and politics to explore alternatives to the traditional domination of nature by humans Featuring a dialogue with Mary Robinson former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights and former President of Ireland which addresses the current climate emergency this book engages the question of ecological hospitality what does it mean to be guests of the earth as well as hosts It includes chapters by cutting edge scholars in the philosophy of nature as well as artists scientists psychologists and theologians The contributors discuss proposals for a new Poetics of the Earth opening horizons beyond our perilous Anthropocene to a new Symbiocene of mutual collaboration between human and non human species Focusing on the central role that the human psyche plays in answering our current ecological emergency Hosting Earth is for anybody invested in the future of our planet and how psychological psychoanalytic and philosophical thought can reorient the current conversation about ecology The Second

Emancipation Howard W. French, 2025-08-26 Named one of the Most Anticipated Books of 2025 by Foreign Policy Howard French's The Second Emancipation stands the second half of the last century on its geopolitical head David Levering Lewis winner of the Pulitzer Prize From the acclaimed author of Born in Blackness comes an extraordinary account of Africa's liberation from colonial oppression a work that fundamentally reshapes our understanding of modern history A work of epic dimension that recasts the liberation of twentieth century Africa through the lens of revolutionary leader Kwame Nkrumah The Second Emancipation the second work in a trilogy from best selling author Howard W French about Africa's pivotal role in shaping world history underscores Adam Hochschild's contention that French is a modern day Copernicus The title referring to a brief period beginning in 1957 when dozens of African colonies gained their freedom positions this liberation at the center of a movement of global Blackness with one charismatic leader Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 at its head That so few people today know about Nkrumah is an omission that French demonstrates is typical of our deliberate neglect of Africa's enormous role in the birth of the modern world Determined to re create Nkrumah's life as an epic twentieth century story The Second Emancipation begins with his impoverished unheralded birth in the far western region of Ghana's Gold Coast But blessed with a deep curiosity a young Nkrumah pursued an overseas education in the United States Nowhere is French's consummate style more vivid than in Nkrumah's early years in Depression era America especially in his mesmerizing portrait of a culturally effervescent Harlem that Nkrumah encountered in 1935 before heading to college During his student years in Pennsylvania and later as an activist in London Nkrumah became steeped in a renowned international Black intellectual milieu including Du Bois Garvey Fanon Padmore and C L R James who called him one of the greatest political leaders of our century and formed an ideology that readied him for an extraordinarily swift and peaceful rise to power upon his return to

Ghana in 1947 Four years later in a political landslide he engineered while imprisoned Nkrumah stunned Britain by winning the first general election under universal franchise in Africa becoming Ghana's first independent prime minister in 1957 As leader of a sovereign nation Nkrumah wielded his influence to promote the liberation of the entire continent pushing unity as the only pathway to recover from the damages of enslavement and subjugation By the time national military and police forces aided by the CIA overthrew him in 1966 Nkrumah's radical belief in pan African liberation had both galvanized dozens of nascent African states and fired a global agenda of Black power In its dramatic recasting of the American civil rights story and in its tragic depiction of a continent that once exuded all the promise of a newly won freedom The Second Emancipation becomes a generational work that positions Africa at the forefront of modern day history Anthropocene Psychology

Matthew Adams, 2020-01-24 This ground breaking book critically extends the psychological project seeking to investigate the relations between human and more than human worlds against the backdrop of the Anthropocene by emphasising the significance of encounter interaction and relationships Interdisciplinary environmental theorist Matthew Adams draws inspiration from a wealth of ideas emerging in human animal studies anthrozoology multi species ethnography and posthumanism offering a framing of collective anthropogenic ecological crises to provocatively argue that the Anthropocene is also an invitation to become conscious of the ways in which human and nonhuman are inextricably connected Through a series of strange encounters between human and nonhuman worlds Adams argues for the importance of cultivating attentiveness to the specific and situated ways in which the fates of multiple species are bound together in the Anthropocene Throughout the book this argument is put into practice incorporating everything from Pavlov's dogs broiler chickens urban trees grazing sheep and beached whales to argue that the Anthropocene can be good to think with conducive to a seeing ourselves and our place in the world with a renewed sense of connection responsibility and love Building on developments in feminist and social theory anthropology ecopsychology environmental psychology post humanities psychoanalysis and phenomenology this is fascinating reading for academics and students in the field of critical psychology environmental psychology and human animal studies You Can Fly Like the Eagle , Basic Camp Management Armand B.
