Tarantinian Ethics:

The Tarantinian Ethics Fred Botting, Scott Wilson, 2001-03-22 The screenplays and films of Quentin Tarantino raise profound comic and ethical dilemmas Developing ideas from Lacanian psychoanalysis Botting and Wilson explore ethical issues in relation to Tarantino's work postmodernity and recent cultural theory They argue that Tarantino's texts provide a provocative and telling contribution to theorized accounts of contemporary culture The term Tarantinian has been coined to refer to a set of sampled self-authorizing signs that are cinematically assembled in processes of consuming/producing expending in the general context of a postmodern capitalism that enjoins excess The Tarantinian ethics are elaborated in the midst of a homogenized fast food movie and video culture in Quentin Tarantino's Inglourious Basterds Robert von Dassanowsky, 2012-06-28 This provocative and unique anthology analyzes Quentin Tarantino's controversial Inglourious Basterds in the contexts of cinema cultural gender and historical studies The film and its ideology is dissected by a range of scholars and writers who take on the director's manipulation of metacinema Nazisploitation ethnic stereotyping gender roles allohistoricism geopolitics philosophy language and memory In this collection the eroticism of the club swinging and avenging Bear Jew the dashed heroism of the role playing French and German females the patriotic fools and pawns the amoral yokel Lieutenant Aldo Raine and the cosmopolitan but psychopathic Colonel Landa are understood for their true functions in what has become an iconoclastic pop culture phenomenon and one of the classics of early twenty-first century American cinema Additionally the book examines the use of foreign languages subverting English and image the allegory of Austria's identity in the war and the particularly French and German cinematic influences such as R.W. Fassbinder's realignment of the German woman's film and the iconic image of the German film star in Inglourious Basterds The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew de Waard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-04-30 La 4e de couv. indique The industry's only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood's most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d'Or and Academy Award winner he has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries and global blockbusters as well as atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from a variety of perspectives analysing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema as well as genre fare a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and Hollywood insider Preoccupied with the detective's role to investigate truth as well as the criminal's alternative value system his films tackle social justice in a corporate world Soderbergh's career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema this volume gives his complex oeuvre the in-depth critical analysis it deserves Sociological Abstracts, 1998 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1,800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Haunted Images Libby Saxton, 2008 Discussing films such as Kapo Shoah and Histoire s du cin ma Haunted Images takes a close look at a range of treatments of the Holocaust in film using sustained textual analysis to rethink film as a witness to history

The Sociological Ambition Chris Shilling, Philip A Mellor, 2001-10-19 The Sociological Ambition is a superb book It is beautifully written expertly edited and renders complex and original ideas entirely accessible This is a modern classic Journal of Contemporary Religion For all social scientists who are fed up with corporate style textbooks which appeal to the lowest common denominator The Sociological Ambition must come as a relief Shilling and Mellor have written an account of their discipline but they have done so with a multi purpose task in mind Irish Journal of Sociology In a comprehensive reassessment of the field Chris Shilling and Philip A Mellor examine the various attempts that have been made to reconstruct sociology over the last century arguing that classical and contemporary social theories must be studied in relation to the ambition that first shaped and established the discipline The authors begin by situating sociology in its historical philosophical and theological contexts examining how the founders of the discipline developed competing analyses of the processes elementary to social and moral life through their unique contributions The result is a landmark work in recent sociological study Accomplished and erudite this book will be required reading for students of sociology social theory religious studies and cultural studies

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grnstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs

The Limits of Death Joanne Morra, 2000 These commissioned articles bring together specific moments in contemporary cultural theory continental thought literature art photography film and music on the subject of Death and Philosophy The Body of Death and Death and Testimony

Deconstruction Reading Politics Martin McQuillan, 2008-01-15 What happens when deconstruction reads politics This collection of essays by some of Derrida s most significant readers thinks through deconstruction s relation to politics by explicating the text of Derrida in relation to political examples Neither deconstruction nor reading nor politics is left untouched in the encounters explored by the contributors to this volume This book dispels any notion of the separation of deconstruction from the everyday and demonstrates the importance of deconstructive thought for the political

The Prosthetic Aesthetic Marquard Smith, Joanne Morra, 2002

The Experience of Culture Michael Richardson, 2001-10-19 In an innovative study of culture Michael Richardson suggests new ways of examining the subject which focus on how cultures emerge and how they are experienced by humans rather than why cultures emerge
