Practical and Ethical Dilemmas in Researching Sensitive Topics with Populations Considered Vulnerable Ana Patrícia Hilário, Fábio Rafael Augusto, 2020-11-06 This book seeks to support social science researchers who interact with vulnerability and or sensitivity in the context of their research Whilst there has been some important debate about the theoretical methodological and ethical issues of conducting research on sensitive topics and or with vulnerable populations the number of scholarly publications focused solely on these topics is limited and not up to date The book intends to fill this gap by providing various research experiences as well as the elements that characterize them The articles selected for this book intend first and foremost to stimulate reflexivity amongst the use of the concepts of sensitive topics and vulnerable groups and to provide tools that will allow researchers to improve their research practices The book integrates several articles that explore a wide range of dilemmas that to a certain extent might allow the reader to access the backstage of this type of research The reader will find here a rich and fruitful space for theoretical and empirical reflection where several social science researchers with different backgrounds share their experiences and research paths in a rigorous and creative way

Designing Indicators for a Plural Legal World Siddharth Peter de Souza, 2022-11-10 Designing Indicators for a Plural Legal World engages with the role of quantification in law and its impact on law and development and judicial reform It seeks to examine how different institutions shape and influence the making and use of legal indicators globally This book sheds light on the limitations of existing quantification tools which measure rule of law due to their lack of engagement with contexts and countries in the Global South It offers an alternative framework for measurement which moves away from an institutional look at rule of law to a bottom up user centered approach that places importance on the lives that people lead and the challenges that they face In doing so it offers a way of thinking about access to justice in terms of human capabilities

Targeting Immigrants Jonathan Xavier Inda, 2008-04-15 This book is concerned with the government of illegal immigration since the passage of the US Immigration Act of 1965 exploring how certain mentalities and intellectual machineries have rendered illegal immigrants as targets of government Examines how various authorities have created knowledge about and constructed illegal immigration as an ethical problem Analyzes the tactics that have been deployed to govern immigration particularly at the US Mexico border Using an ethnographic approach draws on primary source materials including government publications archival documents newspapers and popular magazines Studies measures e g Operation Gatekeeper and Operation Hold the Line for reforming the conduct of illegal immigrants in order to forestall illicit border crossings Frames the study of immigration within Foucauldian theories of governmentality Highlights the role of numbers and statistics in constructing the illegal immigrant

Migrant Mothers' Creative Challenges to Racialized Citizenship Umut Erel, Tracey Reynolds, 2018-10-29 How do racialized migrant mothers contest hegemonic racialized formations of citizenship Bringing together leading scholars from international and multi disciplinary perspectives this book shows how migrant mothers realise and problematise their role in bringing up future citizens in modern societies increasingly characterised by racial ethnic religious cultural and social diversity The book stimulates critical thinking on how migrant mothers creatively intervene into citizenship by reworking its racialized meanings and creating new racially plural practices and challenging boundaries The contributions explore the processes that shape migrant mothers cultural and caring work in enabling their children to occupy a place as future citizens despite and against their racialized subordination The book contributes to disciplinary fields of politics sociology anthropology psychoanalysis participatory arts practice and theory geography queer and gender studies looking at the thematic areas of participatory arts family forms social activism and education in the US Canada the UK France Portugal These cross cultural and disciplinary perspectives contribute to the exciting emergence of a distinctive field of research engaging with pressing intellectual and social issues of how ideas and practices of citizenship develop in the face of increasing spatial mobility and across boundaries of generation and ethnicity in the process requiring new creative interventions into how we think about and do citizenship This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Refugees and Forced Migrants in Africa and the EU

Elisabeth Wacker, Ulrich Becker, Katharina Crepaz, 2018-12-28 The so called refugee crisis represents one of the biggest contemporary political and social challenges Although many African countries have been dealing with forced migratory and refugee movements for decades their experiences have so far largely been neglected in the predominantly Eurocentric public debate The present volume aims to bridge this gap by providing comparative African and European perspectives from different disciplines highlighting the challenges but also potential mutual benefits of social diversification and offering an insight into possible solution strategies

Policing Non-Citizens

Leanne Weber, 2013-09-11 Criminologists are increasingly turning their attention to the many points of intersection between immigration and crime control This book discusses the detection of unlawful non citizens as a distinct form of policing which is impacting on a growing range of agencies and sections of society It constitutes an important contribution not only to the literature on policing but also to the field of border control studies within criminology Drawing on the work of Clifford Shearing Ian Loader and P A J Waddington it offers new theoretical approaches to the study of police powers and practice

The Border Reader

Gilberto Rosas, Mireya Loza, 2023-09-18 The Border Reader brings together canonical and cutting edge humanities and social science scholarship on the US Mexico border region Spotlighing the vibrancy of border studies from the field s emergence to its enduring significance the essays mobilize feminist queer and critical ethnic studies perspectives to theorize the border as a site of epistemic rupture and knowledge production The chapters speak to how borders exist as regions where people and nation states negotiate power citizenship and questions of empire Among other topics these essays examine the lived experiences of the diverse undocumented people who move through and live in the border region trace the gendered and sexualized experiences of the border show how the US Mexico border has become a site of illegality where immigrant bodies become racialized and excluded and imagine anti and post border futures Foregrounding the interplay of scholarly inquiry and political urgency stemming from the borderlands The Border Reader presents a unique cross section of critical interventions on the region Contributors Leisy J Abrego Gloria E Anzald a Martha Balaguera Lionel Cant Leo R Chavez Ra l Fern ndez Rosa Linda Fregoso Roberto G Gonzales Gilbert G Gonz lez Ram n Guti rrez Kelly Lytle Hern ndez Jos E Lim n Mireya Loza Alejandro Lugo Eithne Luibh id Martha Menchaca Cecilia Menj var Natalia Molina Fiamma Montezemolo Am rico Paredes N stor Rodr guez Renato Rosaldo Gilberto Rosas Mar a Josefina Salda a Portillo Sonia Sald var Hull Alicia Schmidt Camacho Sayak Valencia Triana Carlos G V lez Ib ez Patricia Zavella Embodied Politics Rebecca J.
