Here's How to Do

Accent Modification Robert McKinney,2019-03-15 Here's How to Do Accent Modification A Manual for Speech Language Pathologists is designed for speech language pathologists SLPs working with clients on accent modification in American English A growing number of non native speakers are interested in improving their communication skills and SLPs need preparation to work with this clientele The text provides copious advice and many diverse techniques for teaching accent modification from the level of basic sounds to the level of discourse The text emphasizes realistic goal setting so that clients focus on becoming effective communicators as opposed to sounding exactly like native speakers The objective is a balance between clear and natural speech Many SLPs favor intelligibility over naturalness because of their backgrounds working with speech delayed children but with non native speakers this often leads to unnatural speech and listeners focus on how something is said as opposed to what is said Here's How to Do Accent Modification is uniquely geared toward the skills and backgrounds of SLPs working with clients in a one on one setting but is also an excellent introductory text for any English as a Second Language ESL teacher Robert McKinney brings this unique perspective as a speech language pathologist with degrees in both Communication Disorders and Teaching English as a Second Language Also included with the text are numerous practical activities and worksheets for working with clients The ebook includes audio files and video clips to demonstrate working with non native speakers

Asian English Language Classrooms Handoyo Widodo,Alistair Wood,Deepti Gupta,2017-06-14 The teaching of English in the Asian context is always challenging and dynamic because both teachers and learners have diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds Equally important where English is not widely used outside the classroom English language classrooms are an authentic site of learner engagement For these reasons for all those concerned with contemporary English language teaching ELT in Asia Asian English Language Classrooms Where Theory and Practice Meet provides an account of theoretical orientations and practices in the teaching of English to multilingual speakers whose primary language is not English While covering the fundamental ELT areas e g the teaching of language skills educational literature the use of technology in ELT the role of pragmatics in ELT social psychology of the language classroom and language classroom management with which every language teacher and teacher trainer must be concerned this volume showcases how particular orientations shape ELT practices We believe that practicing English teachers must have a heightened awareness of the theory behind their practice At the same time the theoretical stance must be firmly anchored in actual classrooms Containing newly commissioned chapters written by well regarded and emerging scholars this book will appeal not only to beginning teachers or teachers in training but also to established teachers around Asia where English is used as a lingua franca If you are a student teacher of English or an English teacher who would like to see what other progressive teachers like you are doing across Asia this is the book you have been looking for
