The Tasman Map of 1644 Mitchell Library, Sydney, 1948 Journal of the Society of Arts, 1897 Tijdschrift van het Koninklijk Nederlandsch Aardrijkskundig Genootschap, 1949 The Great Race David Hill, 2014-07-03 On the afternoon of 8 April 1802 in the remote southern ocean two explorers had a remarkable chance encounter Englishman Matthew Flinders and Frenchman Nicolas Baudin had been sent by their governments on the same quest to explore the uncharted coast of the great south land and find out whether the west and east coasts four thousand kilometres apart were part of the same island And so began the race to compile the definitive map of Australia These men's journeys were the culmination of two hundred years of exploration of the region by the Dutch most famously Abel Tasman the Portuguese the Spanish and by Englishmen such as the colourful pirate William Dampier and of course James Cook The three year voyages of Baudin and Flinders would see them endure terrible hardships in the spirit of discovery They suffered scurvy and heat exhaustion and Flinders was shipwrecked and imprisoned always knowing he was competing with the French to produce the first map of this mysterious continent Written from diaries and other first hand accounts this is the thrilling story of men whose drawings recorded countless previously unknown species and turned mythical creatures into real ones and whose skill and determination enabled Terra Australis Incognita to become Australia Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 Raymond John Howgego, 2003 A comprehensive reference guide to the history and literature of exploration travel and colonization from the earliest times to the year 1800 The vast scope of the Encyclopedia of Exploration makes it a work unlike any other in its combination of historical biographical and bibliographical data It includes a catalogue of all known expeditions voyages and travels as well as biographical information on the travellers themselves which places them in their historical context The Encyclopedia of Exploration to 1800 is a massive undertaking resulting in a work that extends to 12 million words in almost 1200 pages The 2327 major articles have generated index entries totalling more than 7500 names of persons or ships mentioned in the text Within the text itself there are about 4000 cross references between articles Altogether nearly 20 000 bibliographical citations accompany the articles A considerable quantity of information in this book is presented here for the first time in English More-Than-Human Diasporas Joseph Pugliese, 2024-10-28 Pugliese's More Than Human Diasporas breaks the confines of existing scholarship in its vision of the way that more than human diasporic entities such as water trees clay stone and architectural styles have functioned as agents within the context of empire settler colonialism and a largely effaced history of Mediterranean enslavement a history that pre existed and then coincided with the Atlantic slave trade This book traces for example the diasporic travels of the eucalyptus from Indigenous Country to Joseph Banks botanical collection in London and then onto a grand English style garden in Southern Italy which was built on the historically effaced labour of enslaved people By deploying techniques of historical recovery this book brings to light otherwise buried histories thereby demonstrating the pivotal role of Mediterranean enslavement in the shaping of Italian society and culture This book develops a topological understanding of cultural history to account for the complex spatio temporal effects that connect seemingly disparate times spaces and more than human entities within networks of relationality In this innovative scholarly work more than human diasporic entities function as conceptual keys to histories which would otherwise remain hidden thereby revealing desubjugated knowledges which reconfigure anthropocentric histories and further the process of decolonisation This book will be of interest to readers interested in transnational and local histories of empire settler colonialism and slavery
