Taste Of History 10000 Years Of Food:

A Taste of History Peter C. D. Brears, 1997 The collaboration of five food historians this text provides an authoritative survey of British cooking Over 90 practical recipes adapted for the modern cook allow the reader to experience a real taste of the past The early recipes are based upon archaeological discoveries and the later on manuscripts or cookbooks of the period

A Taste of History Peter C. D. Brears, 1994 The Routledge Handbook of the Global 1980s Jonathan Davis, 2025-08-18
The 1980s was a decade of enormous global change Upheaval from the top of governments to the bottom of societies saw a new world order begin to emerge A new form of capitalism redefined global economics on both the right and left as market forces were unleashed The ideological conflict of the previous four decades petered out as superpower relations improved A more interconnected world introduced new consumer products and forms of popular culture to societies across the globe And protest movements saw new battles fought and new alliances forged in an increasingly interdependent world The Routledge Handbook of the Global 1980s brings together specialists from across the world to examine how the decade was shaped by these changes to politics economics culture societies and protest movements The Handbook is divided into five parts focusing on the global environment globalisation and neoliberalism politics and society culture and society and the closing stages of the global Cold War By taking an international approach to the history of the 1980s this book offers a wide ranging and important new perspective of this hugely transformative decade It will appeal to students and scholars alike as well as all those interested in the political social economic and cultural shifts of the 1980s Buying for the Home Margaret Ponsonby, 2017-03-02 Buying for the Home is a book about the experiences and also the polarities of shopping and the home It analyses the ways in which the agencies and discourses of the retail environment mesh with the processes of physical and imaginative re creation that constitute the domestic space teasing out the negotiations and interactions that mediate this key arena The study examines how the strategies of retailers were both arbitrated by and negotiated through the actions and desires of the homemaker as consumer Drawing on the recent CHORD Centre for the History of Retail and Distribution colloquium on shopping and the domestic environment and including two specially commissioned pieces the book draws on a wide selection of interdisciplinary work from established scholars and new researchers Organised around four key themes retail arenas and the everyday identity and lifestyle fashioning domestic space and cultural practice the ten case studies cover a range of cultural encounters and locations from the seventeenth to the late twentieth century Through these interdisciplinary but linked case studies Buying for the Home forces us to consider the fractured space that existed between the world of goods and the middle and working class home and in so doing interrogate how middle class and plebeian homemakers view imagine and ultimately occupy their domestic spaces in early modern modern and post modern society
