Supreme Court, William Wilcox Cooke, 1883 Wayne County's Lost River Settlements Cletis R. Ellinghouse, 2008-07-23 Wayne Countys Lost River Settlements is a history of six hamlets in southeastern Missouri that were destroyed by the government to clear the landscape for development of Lake Wappapello on the St Francis River in the late 1930s Several of the profitable river bottom homesteads had been in the families for well over 100 years but with nothing else to do the evicted farmers moved on reluctantly in what became the greatest upheaval in the history of the county With so much of Wayne Countys assessed valuation lost in the government buyout it was feared remaining tax revenues would be inadequate to support essential services and that the countys various parts by necessity soon would be attached to adjoining counties That didnt happen but citizens at the doomed county seat Greenville struggled through an ordeal of pain and uncertainty that went on for several months before finally coming to an agreement to build a new town outside the flood plain. Greenvilles turmoil and fight for survival is covered in the concluding segment of the book. It lives on as the county seat in its new location but little is known today of the lost settlements Chaonia, Taskee, Ojibway, Bethel, Center Ridge and Kime, each near the other and all at the time of their destruction, closely aligned by blood and marriage, which gives added significance to the discovery of the papers of Henry Yeakley Mabrey 1836-1915 who spent his childhood at Kime and for the greater part of the rest of his life resided a few miles to the south at Center Ridge which was just north of Chaonia, whose birth he witnessed in 1888. Chaonia, a railroad town, became the trading center for one of the richest farming areas in the southeastern part of the state. Much of what is known of the settlements formative years is based on information gleaned from the Mabrey papers which include school, church, governmental and Civil War journals as well as diaries, letters and personal notes. Mr. Mabrey, a teacher, served in a number of political posts including two terms as commissioner of public schools and two terms as probate judge of Wayne County. The author brings a unique perspective to the story since he has lived with it since early childhood. As he states in the preface of the book, "My involvement with it to write about these people was possibly ordained for I had heard much chatter about many of the families and of course the lost settlements while growing up at Greenville. It is his hope his work brings a measure of honor if not appreciation to the families in the lost settlements whose sacrifices for the common good were for the most part made without fanfare or public notice."

The Life Journey of Mema Prue Kockler, 1901 A Captivating Life Story of God's Miracles. Life's trials have a way of quickly erasing past triumphs and miracles from our memories. Doubt, fear and anxiety soon set in and sometimes we turn to other things to fill the void, only He can fill it. In this intriguing narrative, the author relates the stories of her life as a lasting testimony of God's miracles lest we forget. Passionate about creating a legacy of God's faithfulness, she reflects on His hand on her life through challenges and triumphs, ups and downs, and tells of her amazing family history. This uplifting story reveals a woman who dared to trust God who walked with her every step of the way, getting married, young parenting, relocating, living in motels and engaging in new ventures. Glean from her wisdom and learn how to keep a lasting marriage, how to have a wonderful life despite little, how to navigate life's twists and turns. You will be inspired, motivated and challenged to trust God in every situation and remember His faithfulness more than your failures. We may not always recognize God's hand in the troubling circumstances we face. It takes looking back to see Him and remind us that He still performs miracles.
