White, Kate Gilbert, 2014 A full and provocative reappraisal of the Bayeux Tapestry its origins design and patronage Aspects of the Bayeux Tapestry in fact an embroidered hanging have always remained mysterious despite much scholarly investigation not least its design and patron Here in the first full length interdisciplinary approach to the subject the authors an art historian and a historian consider these and other issues Rejecting the prevalent view that it was commissioned by Odo the bishop of Bayeux and half brother of William the Conqueror or by some other comparable patron they bring new evidence to bear on the question of its relationship to the abbey of St Augustine's Canterbury From the study of art historical archeological literary historical and documentary materials they conclude that the monks of St Augustine's designed the hanging for display in their abbey church to tell their own story of how England was invaded and conquered in 1066 Elizabeth Carson Pastan is a Professor of Art History at Emory University Stephen D White is Asa G Candler Professor of Medieval History emeritus Emory University and an Honorary Professor of Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews

The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo, Nicholas E. Kuefler, 2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror's invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period Who commissioned it and for what purpose What was the intended venue for its display Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry's main register This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom The monographs articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion patronage of the Tapestry biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry arms and armor medieval warfare strategy and techniques opus anglicanum the Anglo Saxon needlework tradition preservation and display of the artifact the Tapestry's place in medieval art the embroidery's depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print, 1996 R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1996-02 Weaving a Teaching Tapestry Michelle Lynn Page, 2001 Tapestries Virginia A.
