Conacher, Helen Kelly-Holmes, 2007 Chiefly papers presented at the 10th International Colloquium on Foreign Language Teaching hosted by the Centre for Applied Language Studies at the University of Limerick on 11-12 June 2005 □□□□, 2001 Teaching and Researching: Autonomy in Language Learning Phil Benson, 2013-11-04 Autonomy has become a keyword of language policy in education systems around the world as the importance of independent learning and new technologies has grown. Now in a fully revised and updated second edition, Teaching and Researching Autonomy provides an accessible and comprehensive critical account of the theory and practice of autonomy. Examining the history of the concept, it addresses important questions of how we can identify autonomy in language learning behaviours and how we can evaluate the wide variety of educational practices that have been designed to foster autonomy in learning. Topics new to this edition include Autonomy and new technologies, Teacher autonomy, The sociocultural implications of autonomy. With over three hundred new references and five new case studies of research on autonomy, providing practical advice on research methods and topics in the field, Teaching and Researching Autonomy will be an essential introduction for teachers and students to a subject at the cutting edge of language teaching and research.

Journal of the College of Arts, National Chung Hsing University, 2000 Online Communication in Language Learning and Teaching M. Lamy, R. Hampel, 2007-11-12 This offers a framework for thinking about technologies that allow online communication, for example forums, chats, real time platforms, as well as virtual worlds and mobile devices, and the practical issues of using them. The authors offer a thorough appraisal of the potential benefits and challenges of learning and teaching a language online. Methods for Teaching Foreign Languages Joan Kelly Hall, 2001 For undergraduate or graduate level foreign language methods courses in Teacher Preparation. Also appropriate for junior high and high school teachers of modern foreign languages. Exclusive in its socio-cultural approach to language learning, this comprehensive text builds on the National Communication Standards for foreign language learning. Its goal is to equip students with the necessary knowledge and skills to establish and maintain effective classroom communities of foreign language learners. To accomplish this, the author incorporates the latest research and theoretical insight regarding communication and communicative development with practical application. The result is a complete, effective approach to designing curriculum, instruction, and assessment for foreign languages. Understanding Second Language Process Zhaohong Han, Eun Sung Park, 2008 This book assembles 11 analytical and empirical studies on the process of second language acquisition, probing a wide array of issues from transfer, appropriate processing to L2 default processing strategies among hearing or deaf learners of a variety of target languages including English, Japanese, Chinese, Korean, French, Spanish, and American Sign Language. Although instruction per se is not the focus of this volume, the chapters are written with instructed learners in mind and hence offer valuable insights for both second and foreign language researchers and practitioners.
