The Russian Grandmother's Wonder Tales

Louise Seymour Houghton,Friedrich S. Krauss,2022-09-16 The Russian Grandmother's Wonder Tales offers a captivating journey through the rich tapestry of Slavic folklore presenting a collection that is as varied in its themes as it is in its narrative styles. This anthology traverses the mystical landscapes and enchanted forests of Russian fairy tales drawing on a legacy of oral storytelling that has been passed down through generations. It includes tales of adventure, morality, and the supernatural, each carefully selected to highlight the cultural significance and timeless allure of these narratives. Co-edited by Louise Seymour Houghton and Friedrich S. Krauss, both stalwarts in the field of folklore studies, this collection benefits from their extensive scholarly backgrounds. Krauss's expertise in the anthropological elements of Slavic traditions and Houghton's profound understanding of mythological motifs converge to create a volume that is as enlightening as it is entertaining. The contributors to this anthology bring together voices from across Russian folklore, reflecting diverse influences and historical contexts, thus offering readers a comprehensive view of a cultural heritage that spans centuries. This anthology is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the complexities of narrative traditions and cultural folklore. It seamlessly blends entertainment with education, making it accessible to both folklore enthusiasts and newcomers. The Russian Grandmother's Wonder Tales is not just a collection of stories; it is an invitation to explore a world of wisdom and enchantment, fostering a deeper understanding of the social and cultural threads that bind these tales together. Readers will benefit from the anthology's ability to provoke thought and inspire dialogue, appreciating the multitude of perspectives contained within its pages.

The Russian Grandmother's Wonder Tales Louise Seymour Houghton,2020-09-28 The stories which the Russian grandmother told will be found with many others in a German collection of Tales and Legends of South Slavonia put forth in Vienna some twenty years ago by Dr. Friedrich Kraus, an ardent student of folk lore. I have sketched in a slight background of peasant village life as it still exists in some parts of Southern Russia because this is the proper setting of these stories and I have been careful to clothe them as nearly as I might in the simple language in which they are told to day by many a village fireside in South Slavonia. I frankly confess to having received from Mr. Joel Chandler Harris the suggestion which I have thus carried out. It was an unerring literary instinct which impelled him to put upon the lips of Uncle Remus and in the environment of a Southern country home of half a century ago the stories which he had found among the colored people of the South. Folk tales of whatever character speak the more directly home to the hearts of children whatever their own intellectual environment in proportion as their setting is most nearly that which naturally belongs to them. Just as the highest value of the Homeric poems is their revelation of the heart of man showing that in all ages and under all conditions heart answers to heart as face answers to face in water so the folk tales of all peoples in their native form have a higher function than simply to amuse a higher than mere literary value they are the child's best introduction to the study of human nature The children will not be the less interested in the stories which the Russian grandmother told to the little peasant boy if they discover in her wonder tales some analogies with stories that they already know The adventures of Master Reinecke and Mrs Petz of Isegrim and Lampe will surely remind them of the Uncle Remus tales they will find some suggestion of Kamer es zaman and the Princess Budoor in the story of The Beg and the Fox a hint of the City of Brass in that of The Vila in Muhlenberg a faint reflection of the Arabian Nights story of the Fisherman in the tale of the Three Eels and they will be especially pleased to recognize their old friend and Sindbad the Sailor s the roc in the bird Kumrikusha The transformations which are so enchanting a feature of the Arabian Nights are here suggested in the story of Steelpacha while the dress of feathers most universal of folk fancies found among every people in the world and most perfectly developed in the Arabian Story of Hassan of Bassora here appears in the tale of The Golden Apple tree and the Nine Pea hens
