The French Left And European Integration:

The French Left and European Integration Sue Ellen M. Charlton, 1972-01-01 Euroscepticism and European Integration Krisztina Arató, Petr Kaniok, 2009 French Relations with the European Union Helen Drake, 2012-10-12 This scholarly work examines how key actors within French politics and society have related to the challenges and opportunities posed by the European Union and how these relations have driven or hindered change in France The collection invites the reader to explore below the surface image of a France troubled by its relations with the EU in the post Cold War era and see the dynamics of change in empirical detail Each chapter offers insights into specific aspects of the France EU relationship including the characteristics of Euroscepticism la fran aise amongst the electorate and political parties the dynamics of change in the political media and legal establishments in their dealings with the EU the priorities for labour business and la vie associative in their relations with French decision makers regarding the EU Framing the European Union Ece Özlem Atikcan, 2015-10-09 What is the impact of political language upon public opinion towards European integration Based upon media analysis public opinion data and over 140 in depth interviews with senior officials and campaigners Ece zlem Atikcan examines six EU referendum votes in Spain France the Netherlands and Luxembourg on the European Constitution in 2005 and in Ireland on the Lisbon Treaty in 2008 and 2009 In all instances polls show that the voting public favored the referendum proposals before the campaigns began yet this initially positive public opinion melted away in three of these six cases Why did this occur Atikcan demonstrates that the key to the puzzle lies in political campaigns where argument strategies can at least temporarily reverse public opinion enough to affect referendum outcomes Providing a critical analysis of campaign strategy and EU communication policy this book will be essential reading for academics policymakers politicians and future campaigners Handbook on the European Union and Brexit John E. Fossum, Christopher Lord, 2023-01-17 Brexit has irrevocably transformed British politics yet its effects are not confined to relations between the UK and the EU Venturing beyond the already vast literature on Brexit this dynamic Handbook explores the implications of the UK s withdrawal from the EU for the EU itself single countries within and beyond Europe and the international system as well as different social groups generations and territories within the UK The French Political Parties of the Left and European Integration, 1947-1949 Frederick F. Ritsch, 1962 Socialists and European Integration Byron Criddle, 1969

The End of the French Exception? T. Chafer, E. Godin, 2010-06-01 Analyzes the notion of the French exception and the ways in which it has informed both academic analysis and political commentary on France today Adopting a comparative and interdisciplinary approach it examines the resilience of the notion of French exceptionalism and evaluates its relevance in a changing domestic and global context Social Democracy and the Challenge of European Union Robert Ladrech, 2000 He also explores what this new form of political activity means for European politics arguing that the traditional positions of left and right may be becoming increasingly significant within the EU s evolving transnational political

France, Europe, and the Institutional Construction of Interests Craig Alexander Parsons, 1999 The European Parliament Paula Scalingi, 1980-04-17 European Politics in Transition Mark Kesselman, 2006 Written by six prominent scholars European Politics in Transition presents a stimulating and comprehensive introduction to the political systems of post World War II Great Britain France Italy Germany Eastern Europe and the European Union Four key themes economic management relationships between countries the challenges of democracy and the political impact of social diversity are used to illustrate the concept of politics in transition within each country and on a global level Constitution Building in the European Union: The Process of Treaty Reforms Brendan Smith, 2002 This book focuses on the negotiations of what are termed the eight constitutional IGCs These eight include the negotiations of the 1950s and 1960s on the European Coal and Steel Community the European Defence and Political Community the European Economic Community and European Atomic Energy Community the Fouchet Plan the Single European Act the Maastricht Treaty the Amsterdam Treaty the Nice Treaty The book challenges the neofunctionalist and liberal intergovernmentalist perspectives that have been used in the past to explain the process of IGCs The author presents an alternative perspective in the form of an incremental model to explain the nature of negotiations at all eight constitutional IGCs It is also argued that the increasing frequency of IGC negotiations signifies a gradual institutionalisation of the process to the point where the constitutional IGC is becoming a regular feature on the EU's political landscape Governments are locked into a process of constitutional IGCs that leaves the primary legal document of the EU in a state of perpetual reform In turn it is argued that the incrementalism that defines the IGC negotiations shapes the entire process of European integration and the general nature of the European Union
