The Good Apprentice:

The Good Apprentice Iris Murdoch, 2010-10-31 Stuart Cuno has decided to become good. Not believing in God he invents his own methods which include celibacy, chastity and the abandonment of a promising academic career. Interfering friends and relations question his sincerity, his sanity and his motives. Stuart's step brother Edward Baltram is tormented by guilt because he has he believes killed his best friend. He dreams sometimes of redemption, sometimes of suicide. Funny, compelling and extremely moving, THE GOOD APPRENTICE is about guilt, ridden despair and the difficult problem of how to try to be good and the various magical devices which console those who are sensible enough not to try.

The Unresolvable Plot Elizabeth Dipple, 2019-10-01

Originally published in 1988, the last few decades had seen the appearance of some brilliant and complex new kinds of fiction. The ambitious experiments of writers such as Greene, Garcia Márquez, Borges, Nabakov, Calvino, Beckett, Eco, Spark, Hoban, Murdoch, Bellow, Ozick, and Lessing, among others, had all proved the vitality of contemporary fiction in discovering exciting new forms and styles. Yet because of the difficulty of many of the texts, contemporary fiction as a genre had acquired an undeservedly unpopular reputation among students and other readers. In a very real way, the reader had become nervous rather than confident in the face of a literature that in fact is more aware of and generous to that reader than earlier and more apparently accessible literature ever managed to be. And the new fiction's seeming remoteness from the reader is exaggerated in a sense by the critical academic response at the time, which tended to obscure the texts themselves behind the many aesthetic and cultural theories which had sprung up in the study of fictionalizing or narrativity in general. Elizabeth Dipple is anxious to dispel readers' fears about these texts. She has chosen an international list of major writers of the time and presents a detailed discussion of each. Beginning each chapter with a brief explanation of the context in which each fictionist is to be examined, she then concentrates on an analysis of key texts, aiming always to look beyond jargon and theory back to the sources themselves. Professor Dipple's purpose was to convey to the reader some of her own admiration and enthusiasm for contemporary fiction and to persuade him or her to take a fresh look at a group of writers who were producing what she felt would surely be seen by future generations as among the most sophisticated and accomplished fiction of our time.

Iris Murdoch and the Others Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-12-02

The others examined by Fiddes are mainly those with whom Murdoch entered into explicit dialogue in her novels and philosophical writing, including Immanuel Kant, Simone Weil, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Rudolph Bultmann, Paul Tillich, Don Cupitt, Donald Mackinnon, and Jacques Derrida. This historic dialogue is however placed within a wider dialogue between literature and theology, being conducted by the author and others are brought into relation with Murdoch in order to illuminate this more extensive conversation, notably the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins and the feminist philosopher Julia Kristeva. The book demonstrates that characteristic themes in

Murdoch's novels and philosophy the love of the Good the death of the ego illusory consolations the death of God the modifying of the will by waiting the sublime and the beautiful and attention to other things and persons all take on a greater meaning when placed in the context of her life long conversation with theology The exploration of this context is deepened in this volume by reference to annotations and notes that Murdoch made in a number of theological books in her personal library

Understanding Iris Murdoch Cheryl Browning Bove,1993 Describes Murdoch as preoccupied with love art the possibility difficulty of doing good avoiding evil

Freedom and Limit P. Fiddes,1991-11-25 If imagination is understood to be a human response to the self revelation of God what practical results might this have for the work both of literary criticism and theology Both theologians and creative writers find human existence to be characterised by basic tension between freedom and limit which accounts for a sense of fallenness and which a dialogue between literature and Christian doctrine can do much to illuminate Such a dialogue is worked out in studies of the poetry of William Blake and Gerard Manley Hopkins and the novels of D H Lawrence Iris Murdoch and William Golding
