The Good Mother:

The Good Mother Susan Goodwin, Kate Huppatz, 2010 The Good Mother brings together essays on the contemporary relevance of the good mother in Australia Although the ideals of the good mother change with time fashion and context they persist in public policy the media popular culture and workplaces They place pressure on women to conform to particular standards against which they are judged and judge themselves This book captures the diversity of contemporary women's experiences Chapters address the experiences of executive mothers mothers working in manual trades yummy mummies and slummy mummies low income mothers single mothers Indigenous mothers lesbian parents adoptive mothers and mothers negotiating schools and school choice The essays demonstrate that while the good mother is no longer exclusively white heterosexual economically dependent and child focused prevailing ideas about mothers and motherhood continue to influence the way types of women are represented and the way that all mothers think act and present themselves The Good Mother Myth Avital Norman Nathman, 2013-12-31 In an era of mommy blogs Pinterest and Facebook The Good Mother Myth dismantles the social media fed notion of what it means to be a good mother This collection of essays takes a realistic look at motherhood and provides a platform for real voices and raw stories each adding to the narrative of motherhood we don't tend to see in the headlines or on the news From tales of mind bending panic inducing overwhelm to a reflection on using weed instead of wine to deal with the terrible twos the honesty of the essays creates a community of mothers who refuse to feel like they're in competition with others or with the notion of the ideal mom they're just trying to find a way to make it work With a foreword by Christy Turlington Burns and a contributor list that includes Jessica Valenti Sharon Lerner Soraya Chemaly Amber Dusick and many more this remarkable collection seeks to debunk the myth and offer some honesty about what it means to be a mother The Life of the Great African Traveller Dr. Livingstone. ...
